Try to remember . . .

years of studying and fun . . .

Try to remember in days to come the years spent at Lew Wallace . . .
years of innumerable experiences . . .

years of fond friendships . . .

a threshold to the future.

Try to remember the Football-O-Rama of 1968—Chelle Goetz was crowned City-Wide Queen—the Wallace crowd cheered the Hornets to victory over West Side and Emerson.

Anxious faces study the movements of the players.

Michelle Goetz accepts the honor of City-Wide Queen.

Exhaustion shows on the faces of Bob Buha and Jim Mandon as they take a breather.

Lew Wallace Hornets charge on to victory over West Side High.

A popular place for couples is the romantic setting of the bridge over the lagoon.

Love Blossoms

The Marquette Park Pavillion provides not only picturesque scenery but also an ideal location for entertaining.

at the Beach

Try to remember lazy summer days spent lolling on the beach, the white-capped waves, and the hot sand. Remember strolling on the bridge with that special someone. Remember the peacefulness of the swans gliding along the silent lagoon.

Marquette Park is frequented by hundreds of high school students each summer. Wallace students always seem to be on the scene soaking up the sun and "pursuing their interests". Those balmy summer days were a perfect prelude to a busy school year.

Antique shopping could prove to be an interesting Saturday date.

Tea is poured by Joyce Pederson for Jerry Qualizza before an informal outing.

Date-Time Fashions

Al Korac and Donna Cothren model sportswear for a casual date.

Try to remember that fabulous date with Mr. Wonderful. What did you wear?

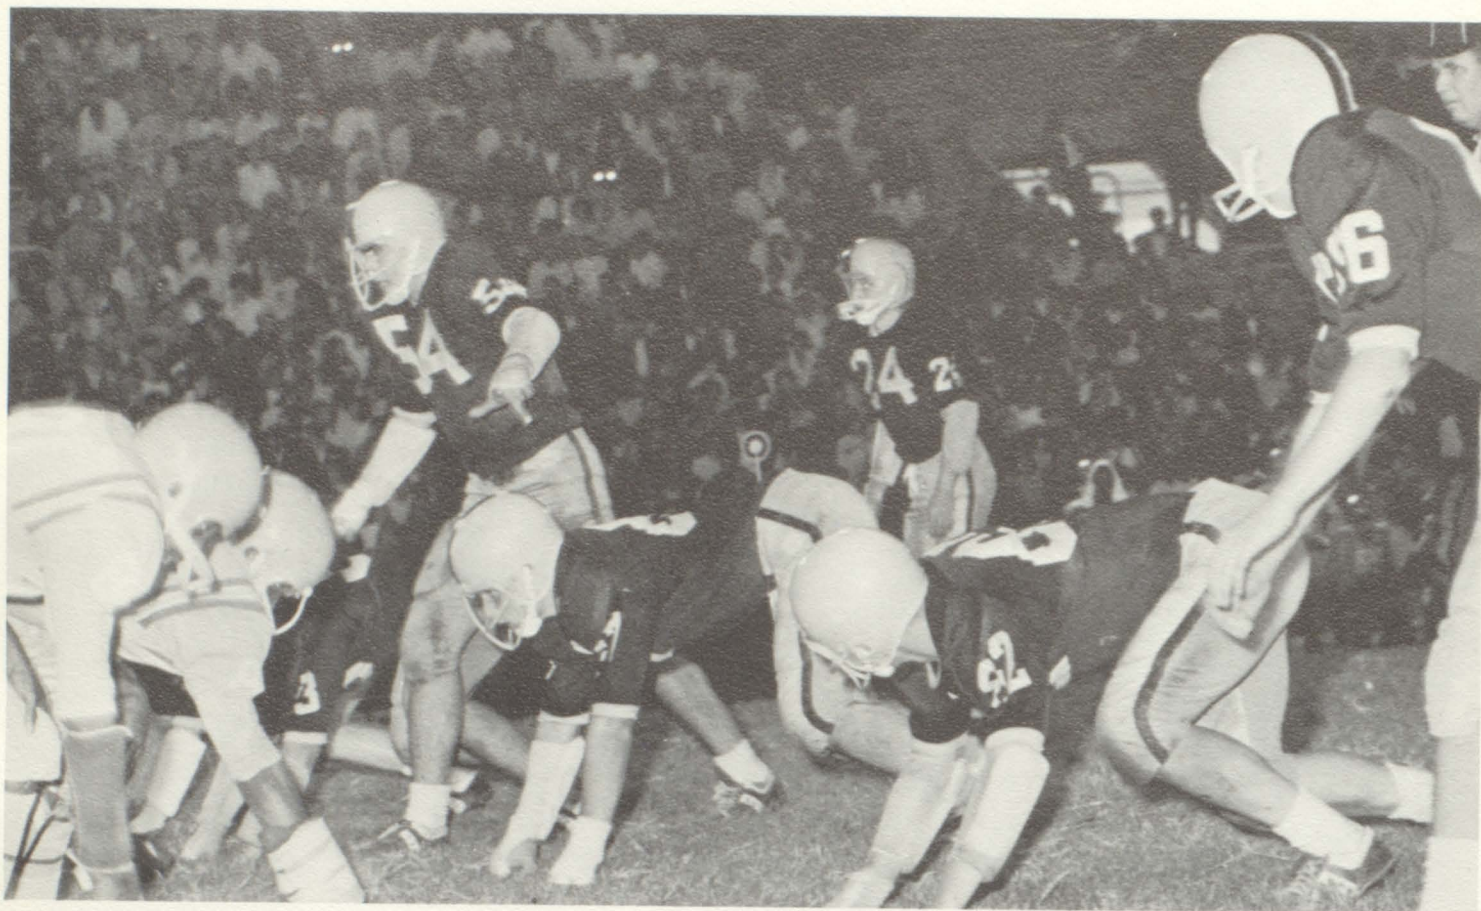

Dating never ceases to be exciting, and it's even more fun when you know that your date is proud of the way you look. Whether you dress casually or formally, your outward appearance reflects the inner you. If you look your best, you feel your best and that's when you're the most fun to be with.

If you've ever been confused as to what to wear on a date, take special notice of our models.

Attire for a dressy date is shown by Ken Biggs and Cathy Combs.

We're Proud of Our Team!

Mike Milich (54) positions his men for the next play.

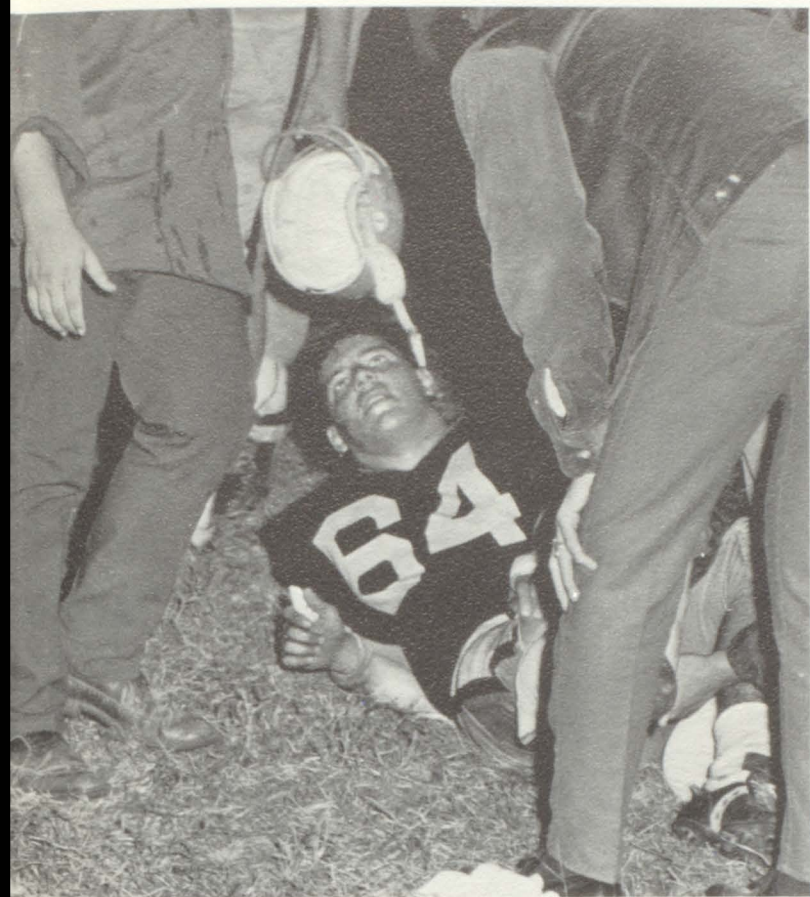

Senior boys, by their support and optimism, promote school spirit.

Gary Williams (53) generates

Jim Mandon (64) learns by experience that pain is part of the game.

Try to remember the 1968 football season and the tireless display of school spirit. Try to remember the excitement of winning . . . and almost winning.

Our team demonstrated the power of enthusiasm and transmitted their zeal to every spectator. Both the players and the coaches are to be commended for their efforts.

Coach Martin shouts words of encouragement from the sidelines.

the drive to win among his teammates.

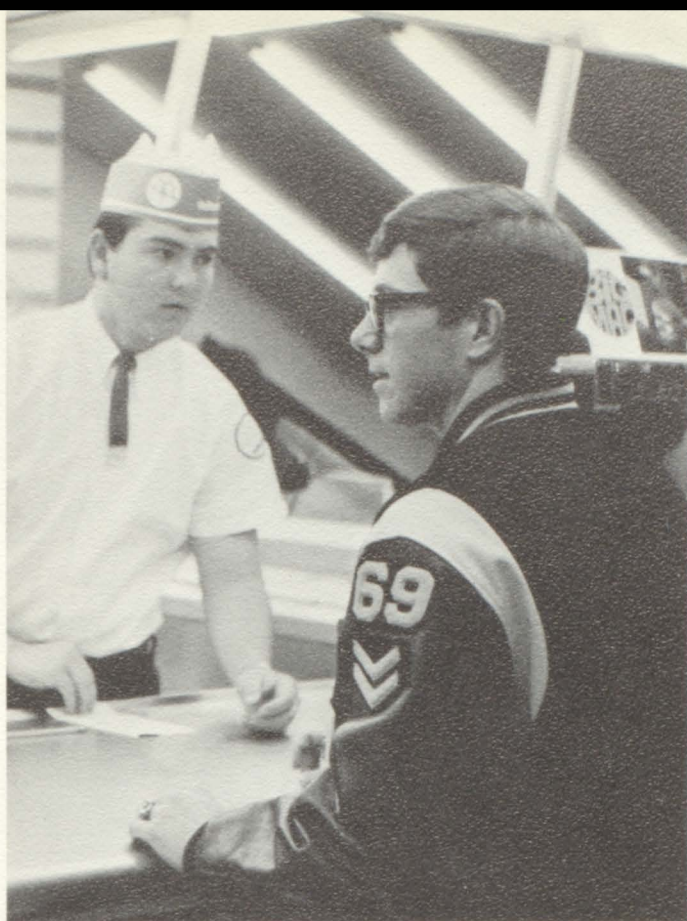

The first prize winning car for the Wallace vs. Andean game reads, "What's an Andean?"

Is there any doubt as to whose side they're on?

Steve Johnson makes it to the scene at Mac's.

Try to remember the good times you had being with your friends and being a part of Lew Wallace. Remember clowning at the games, being painfully initiated into a club, and eating countless double-cheeses and vanilla malts at Mac's.

Kyle Stevens asks herself, "Is Auditorium Council worth it?"

"Da . . . Was that a taffy apple you wanted?"

"Let's get the show on the road."

How about the size of this arm?

Freshmen oppose the newly initiated dress-up day during Spirit Week.

Does she or doesn't she? Only Senior Class President, Steve Johnson knows for sure.

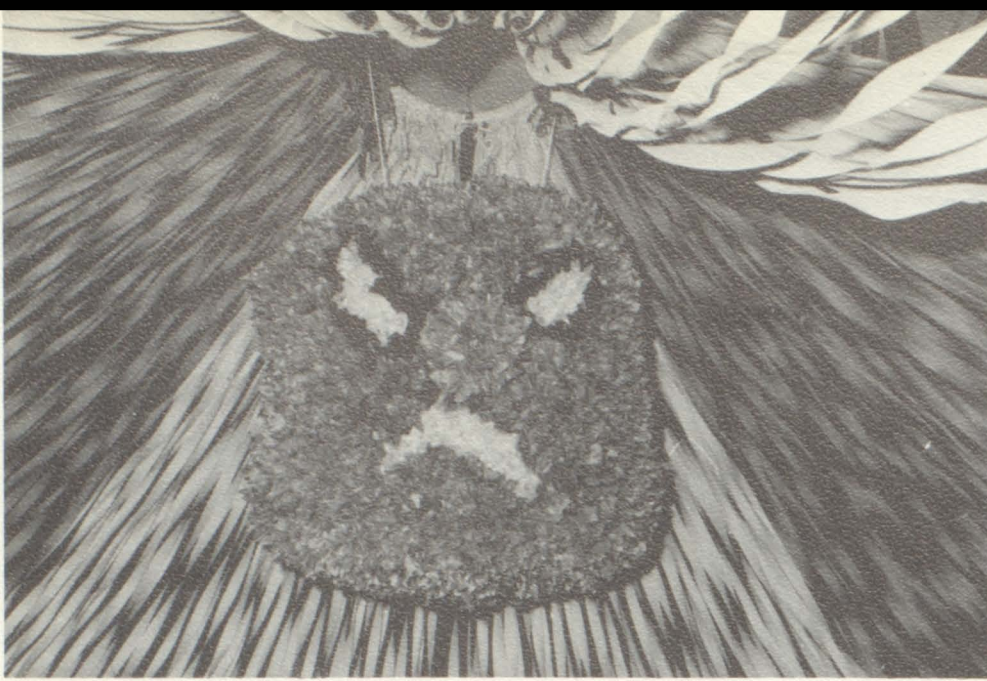

The Battle of the Sexes rages on!

Senior Yippie person displays his enthusiasm during Spirit Week.

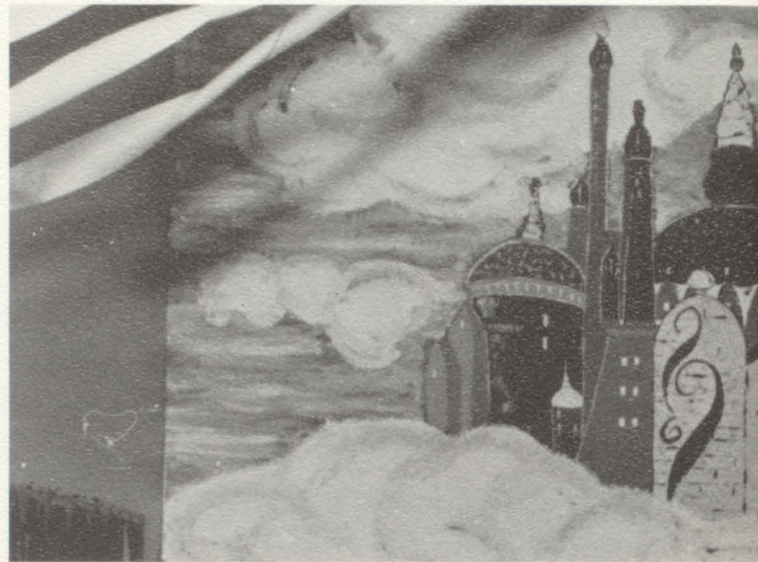

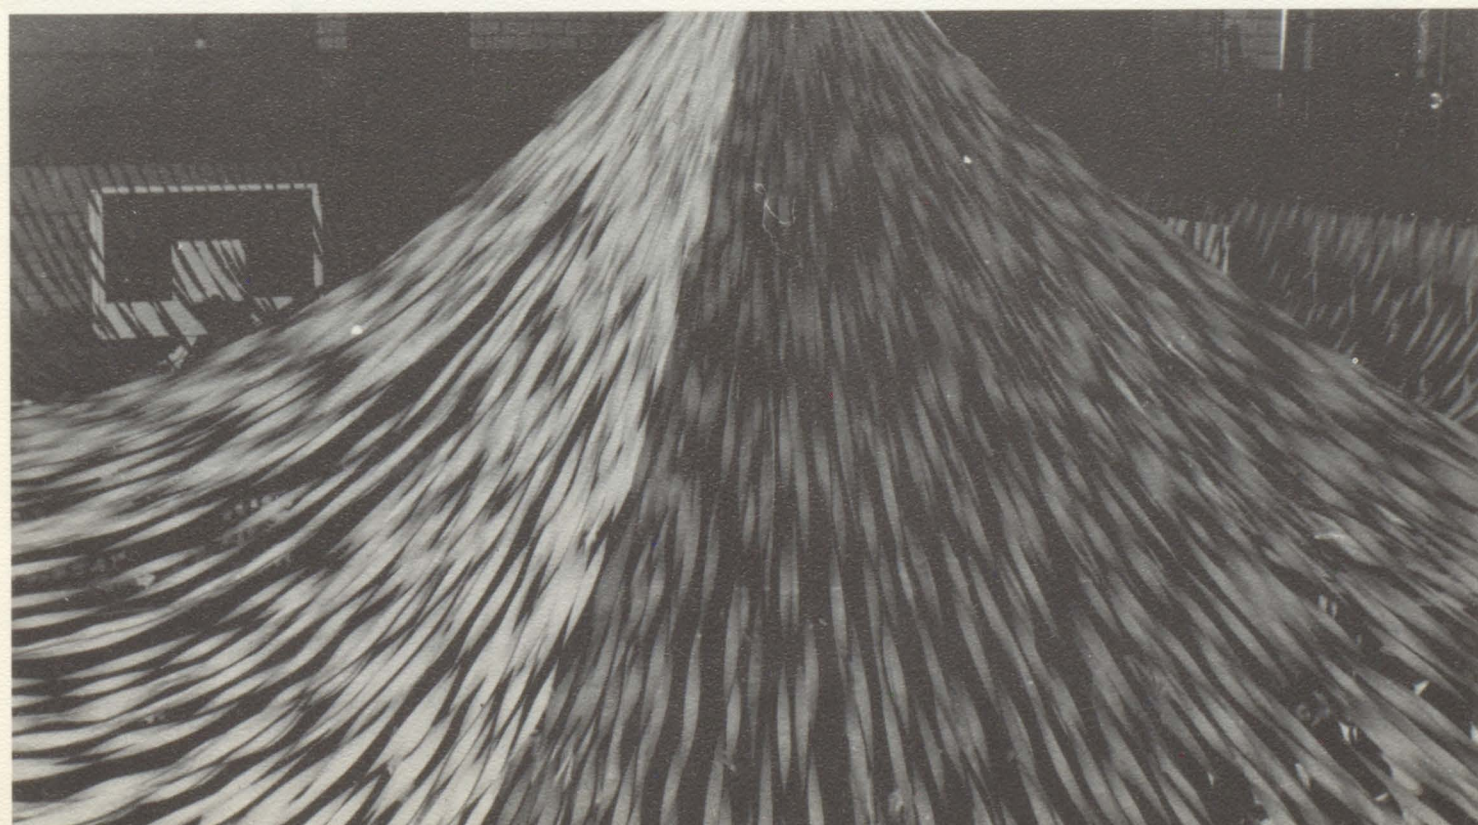

On Tuesday of Spirit Week, the Class of '71 competes for honors.

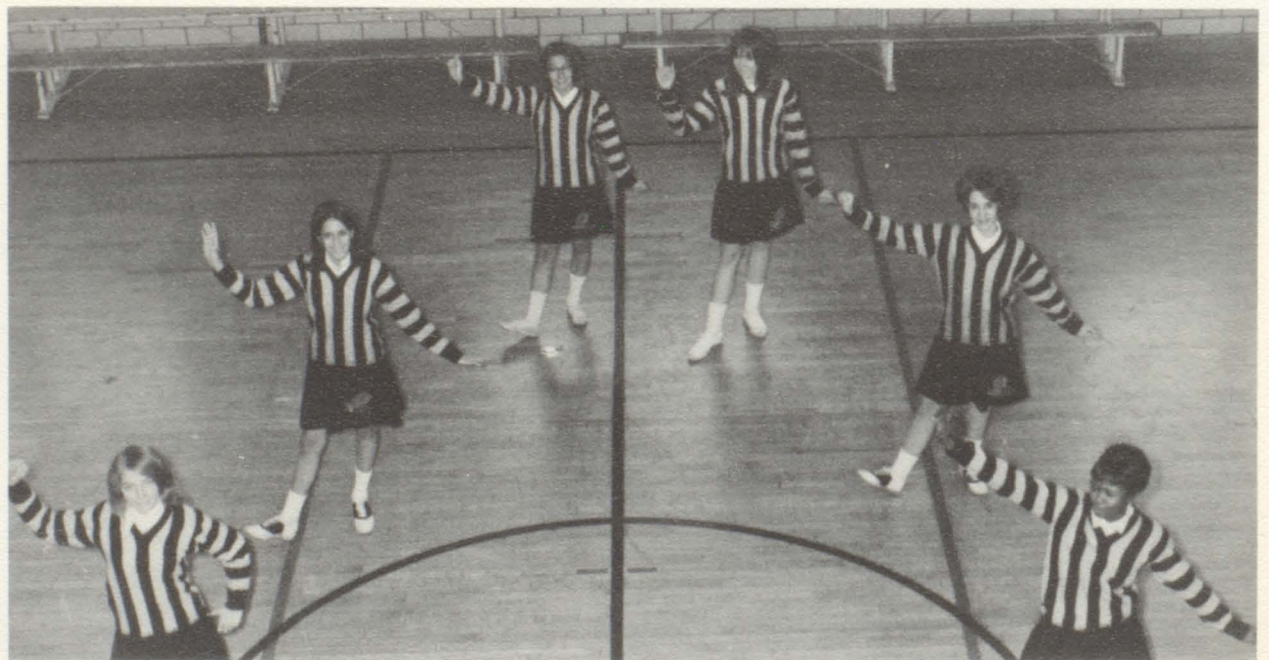

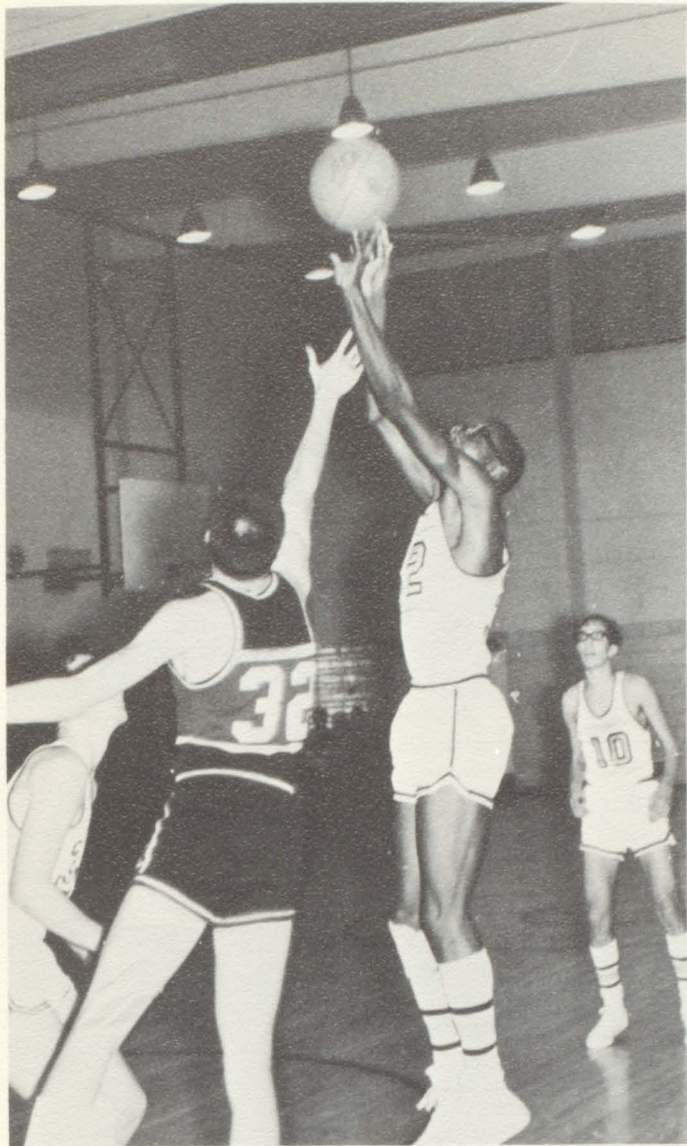

Try to remember the Girls' Club turnabout, Over the Rainbow, and your return to the Land of Oz. Remember working on the wizard and hanging murals. Remember the yellow-brick road and the Munchkins.

Each fall, Girls' Club sponsors a turnabout, and underclassmen and upperclassmen take part in the event. This year the turnabout was especially successful, thanks to the efforts many Girls' Club members.

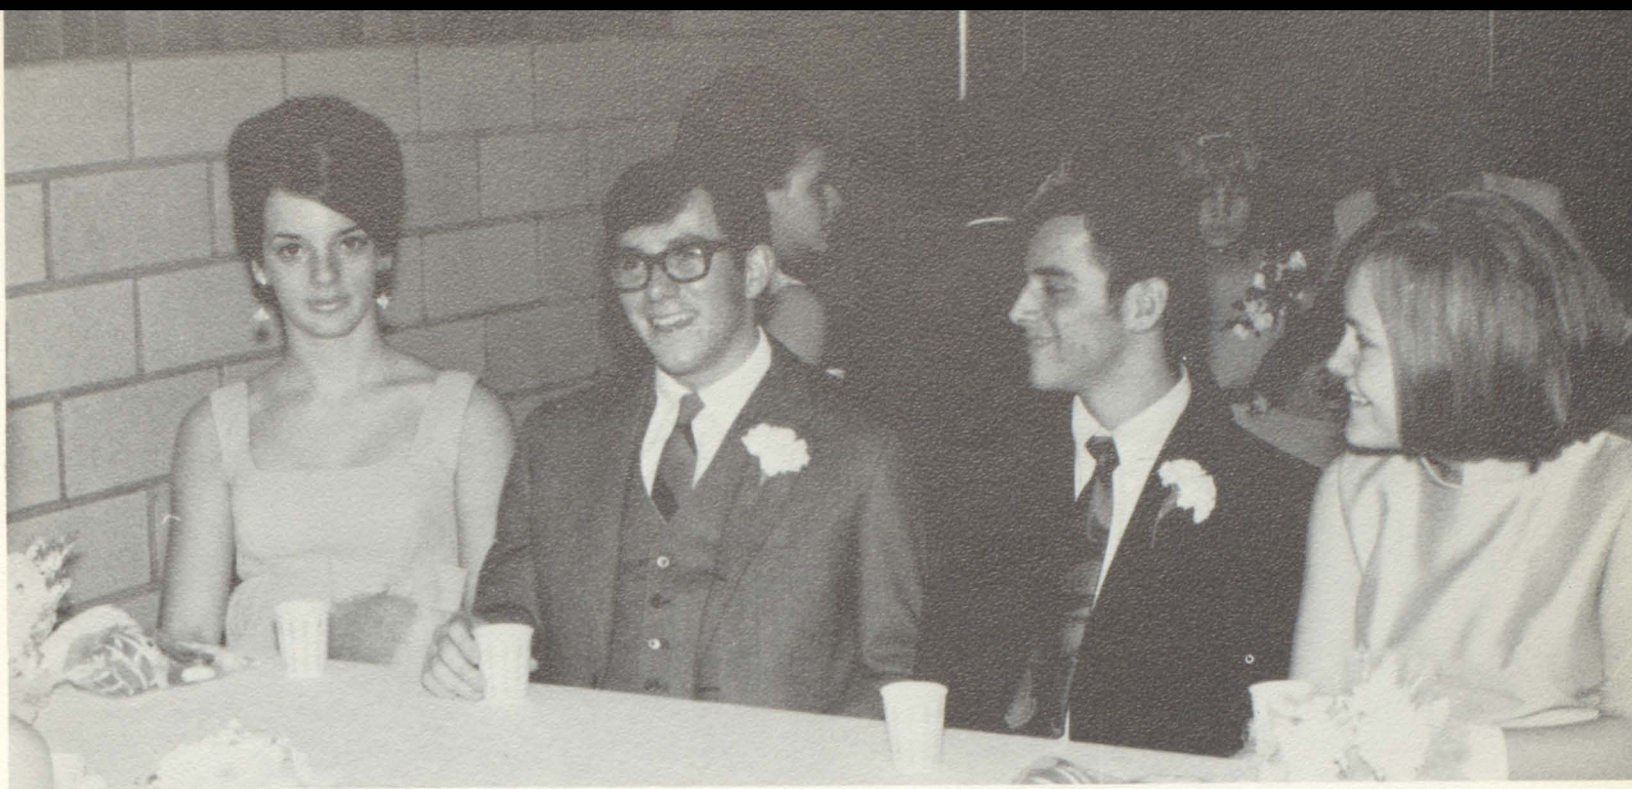

Try to remember basketball season. Remember the great spirit demonstrated especially by the male section of our cheering block. Remember the tense moments of our many exciting games and our proud victories. But over all, remember our promising young team and its determined coach.

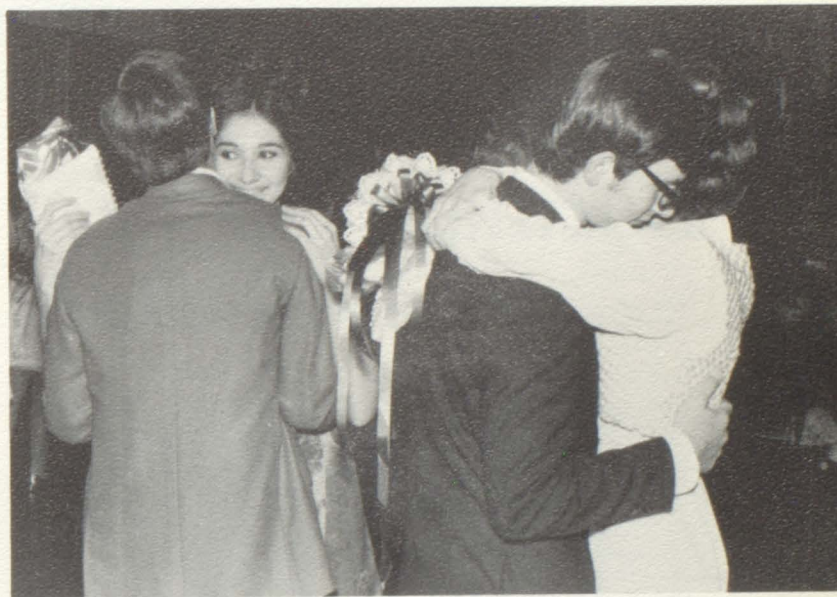

Try to remember the Inaugural Ball. Remember Angel Chaney carrying out the theme, A Heavenly Christmas. Remember your first nosegay and the Christmas elf you took home as your favor.

'The Inaugural is the highlight of the Christmas season. The semi-formal affair adds sparkle to the holidays and is a great way to start the vacation.

Colonel Borman raises his hands quelling the tremendous applause of the crowd.

Borman

A serious pause occurs in Colonel Borman's speech.

Student Council President, Kathleen Wise asks a question of the honored speaker.

Yvonne Zakula, Michelle Goetz, and Rick Wisnieski help promote the Senior Prom by collecting newspapers.

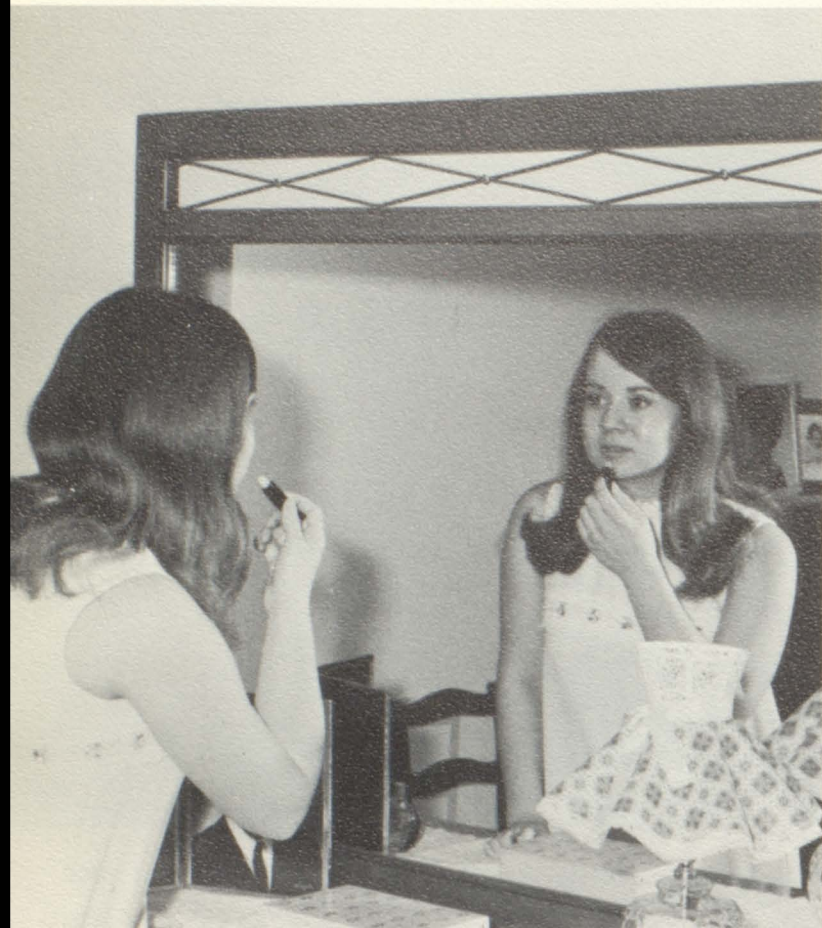

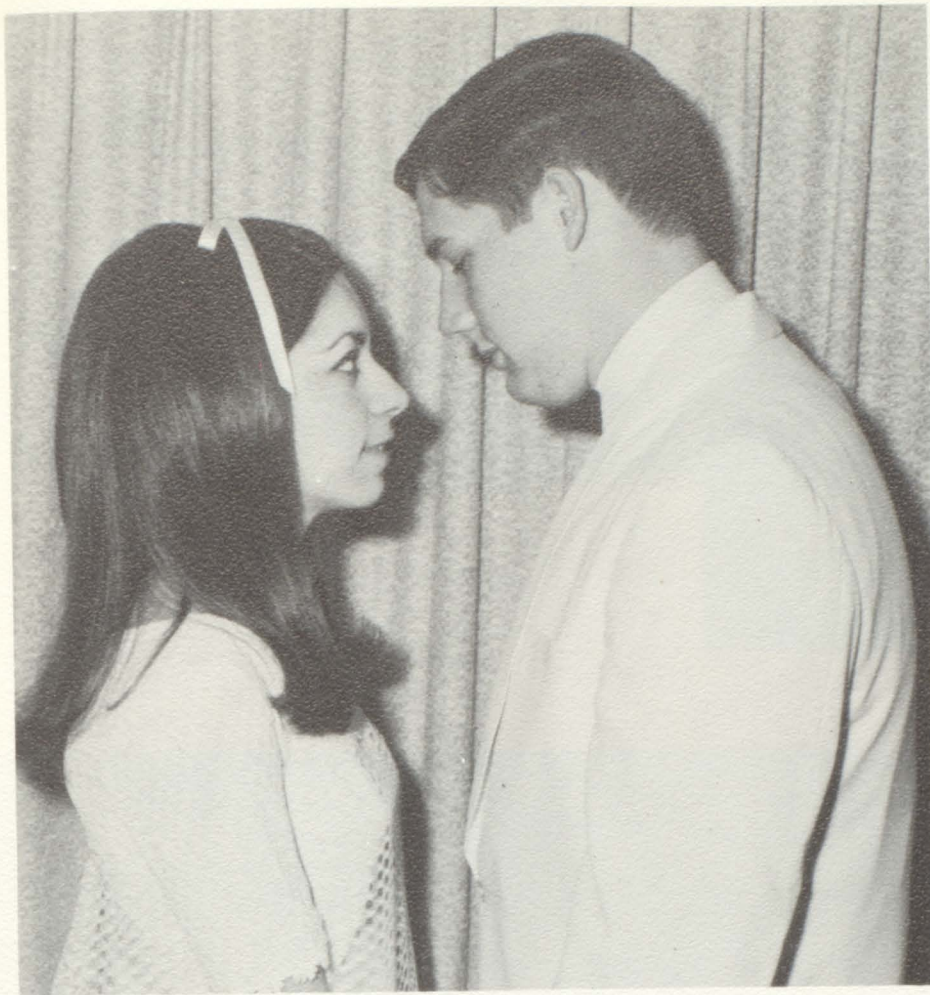

Jane Soloman displays baked good made by Seniors to raise funds for the prom.

Activities

Sue Lugar attempts to sell school sweaters to Sandy Yovanoff and Linda Sams in hopes of increasing funds for Senior Prom Committee.

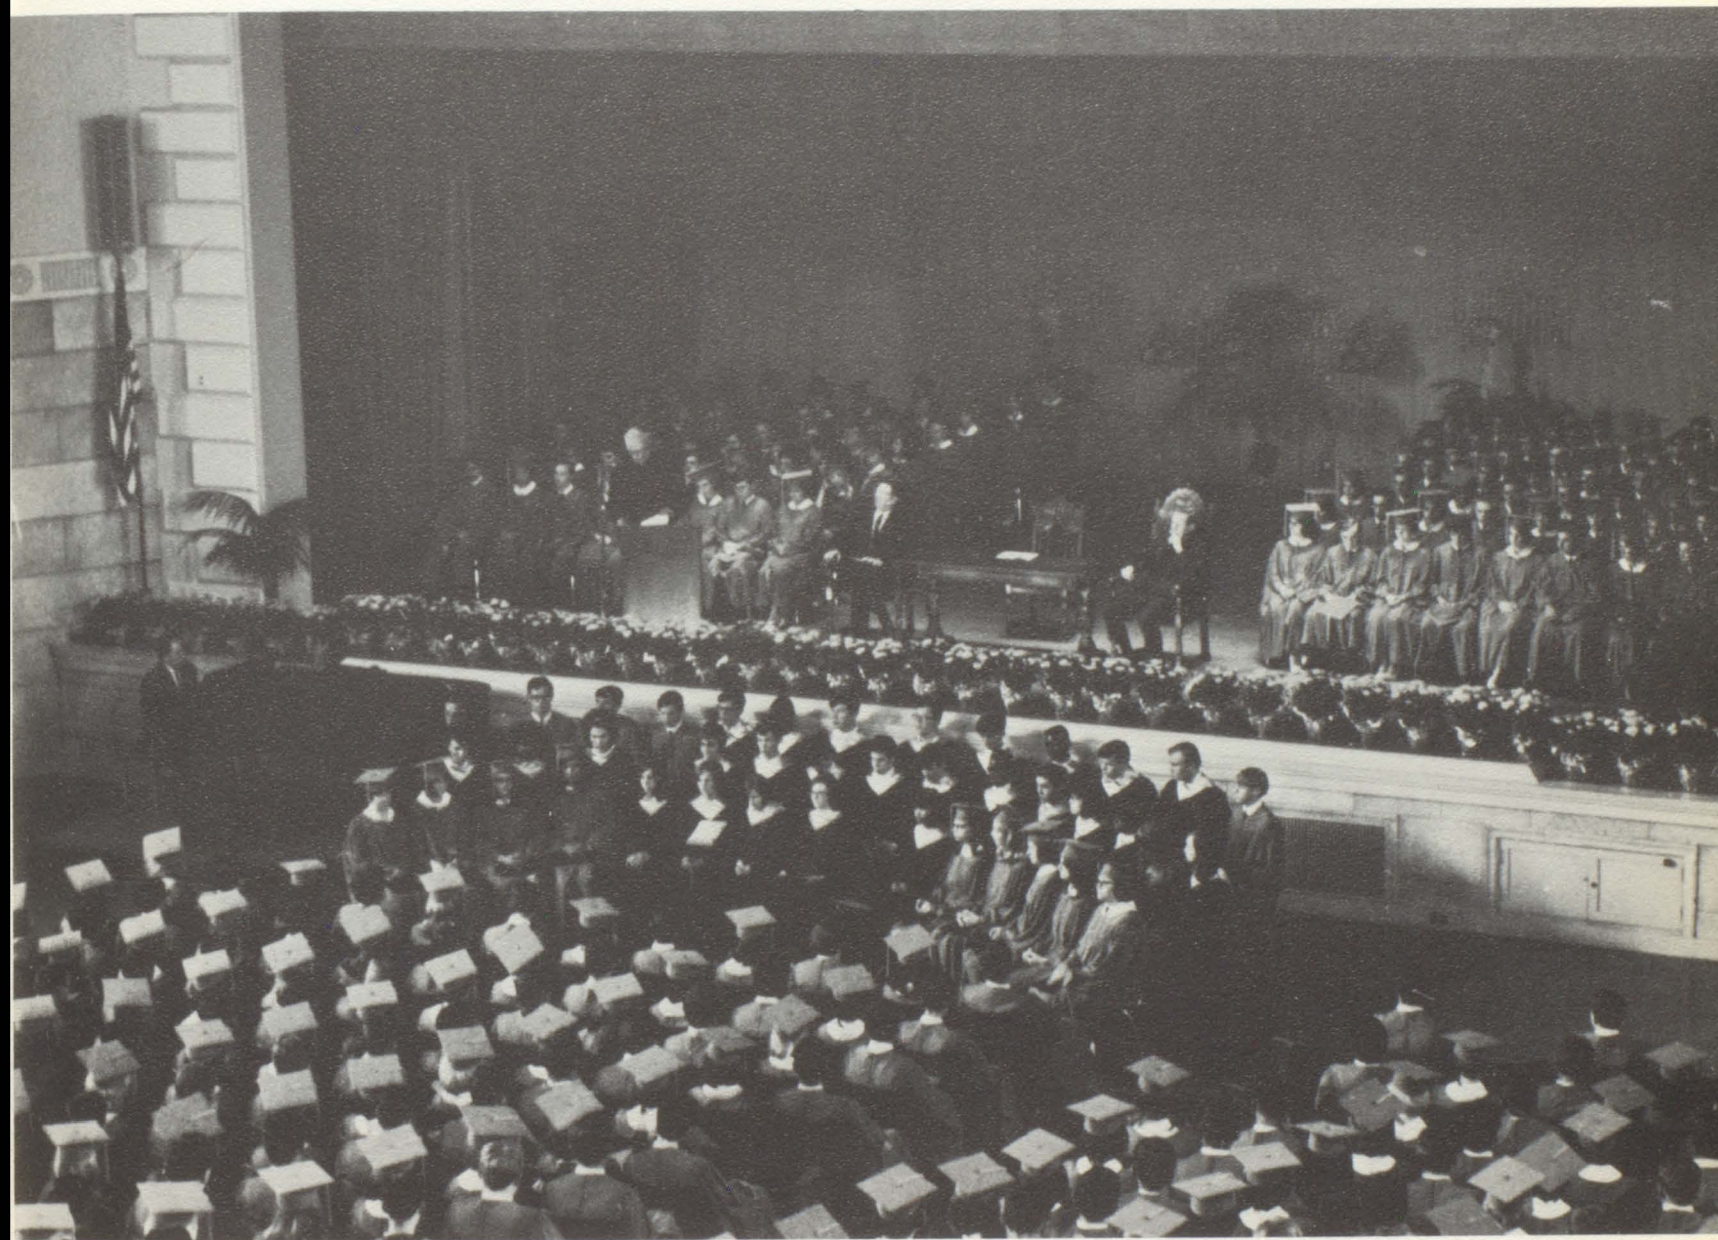

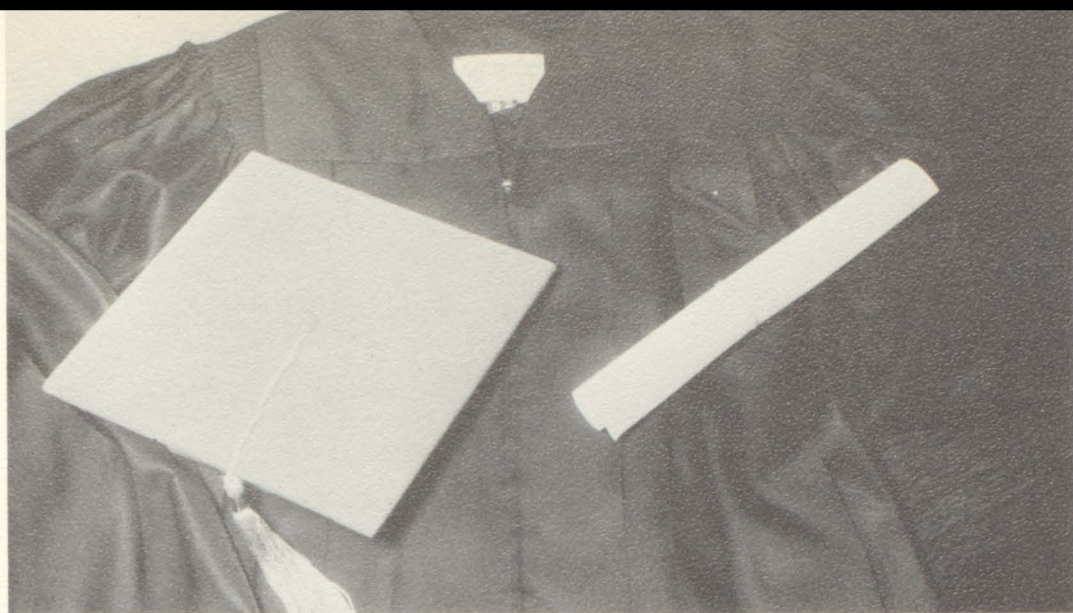

Try to remember the entrancing Senior Prom—the flowers, the dance, the Post-Prom, and the hours you spent getting ready and making certain that everything was perfect. Remember that it all passed too quickly and took its place among your many school memories.

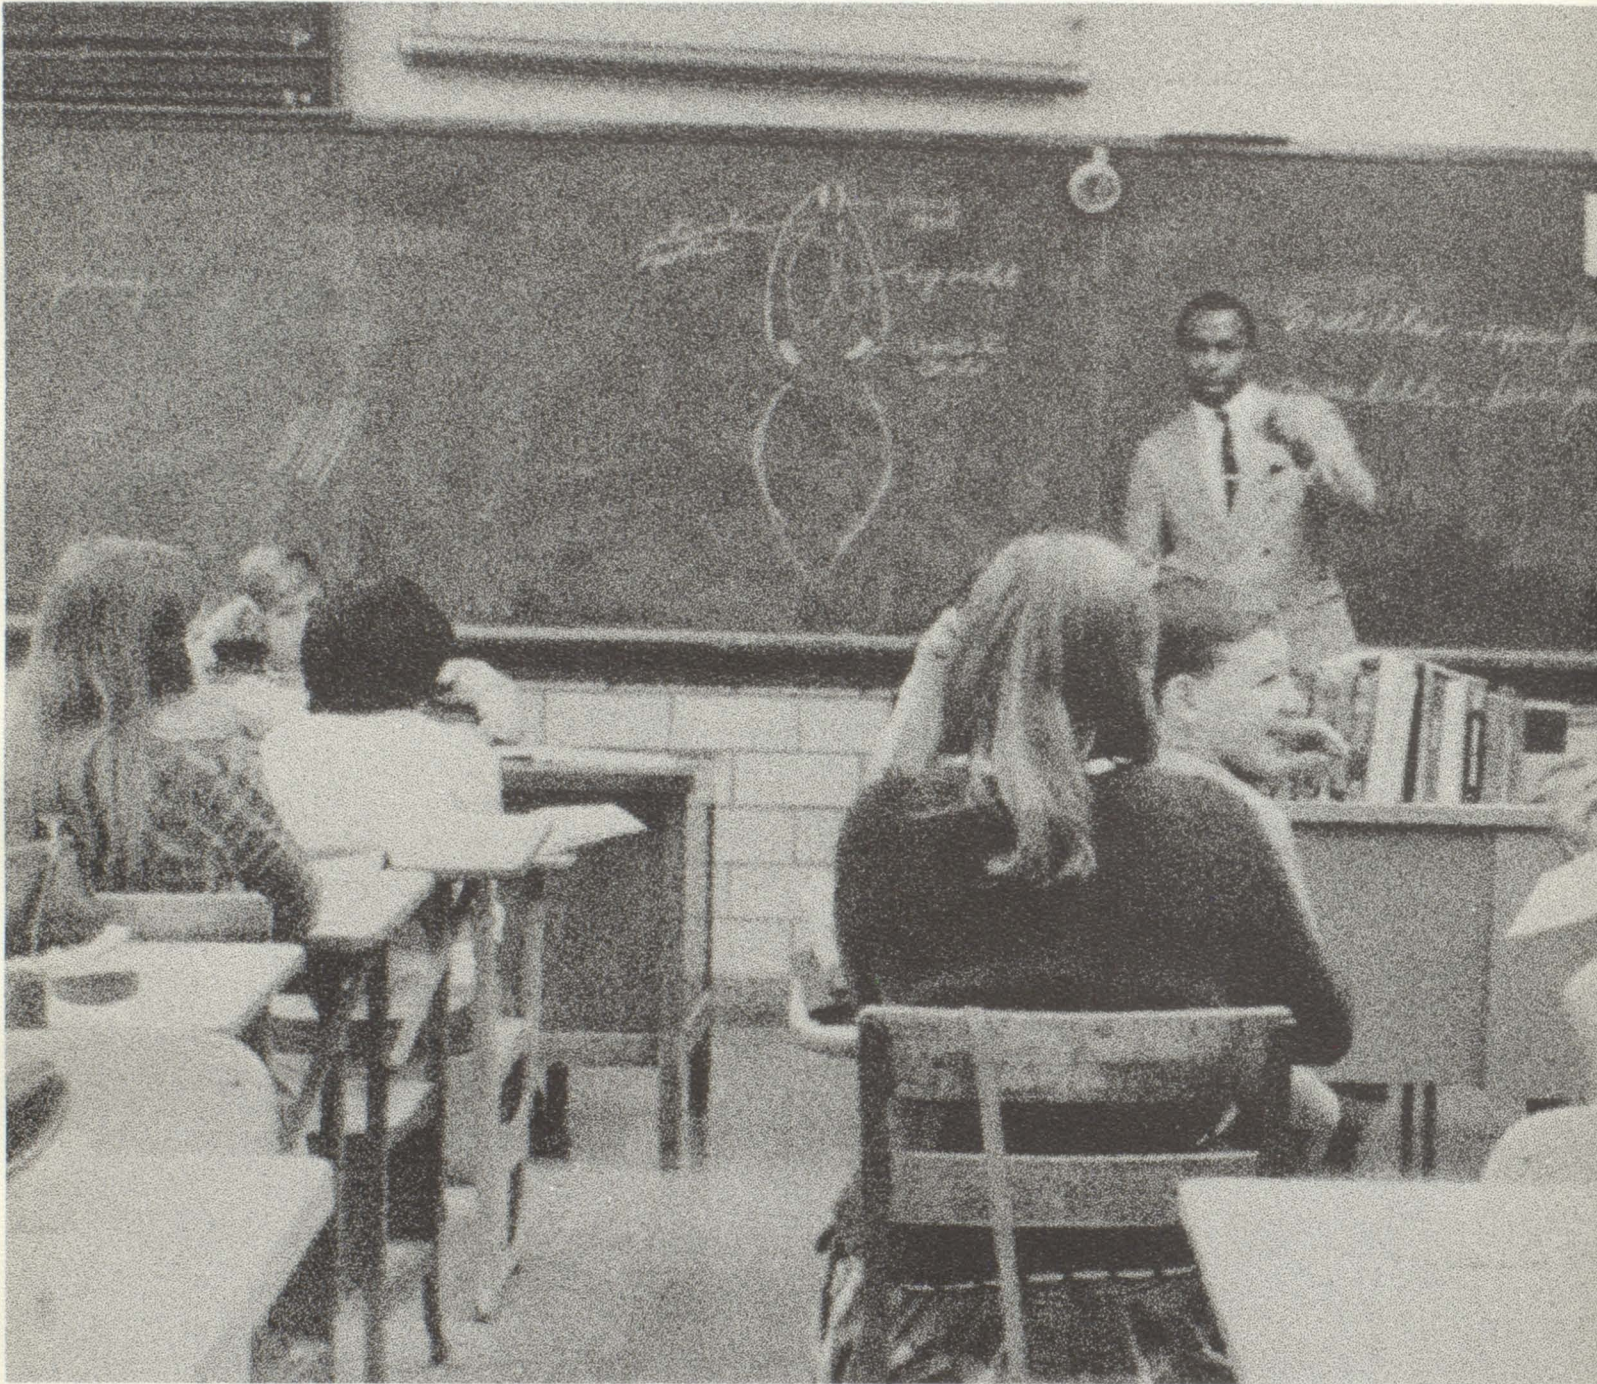

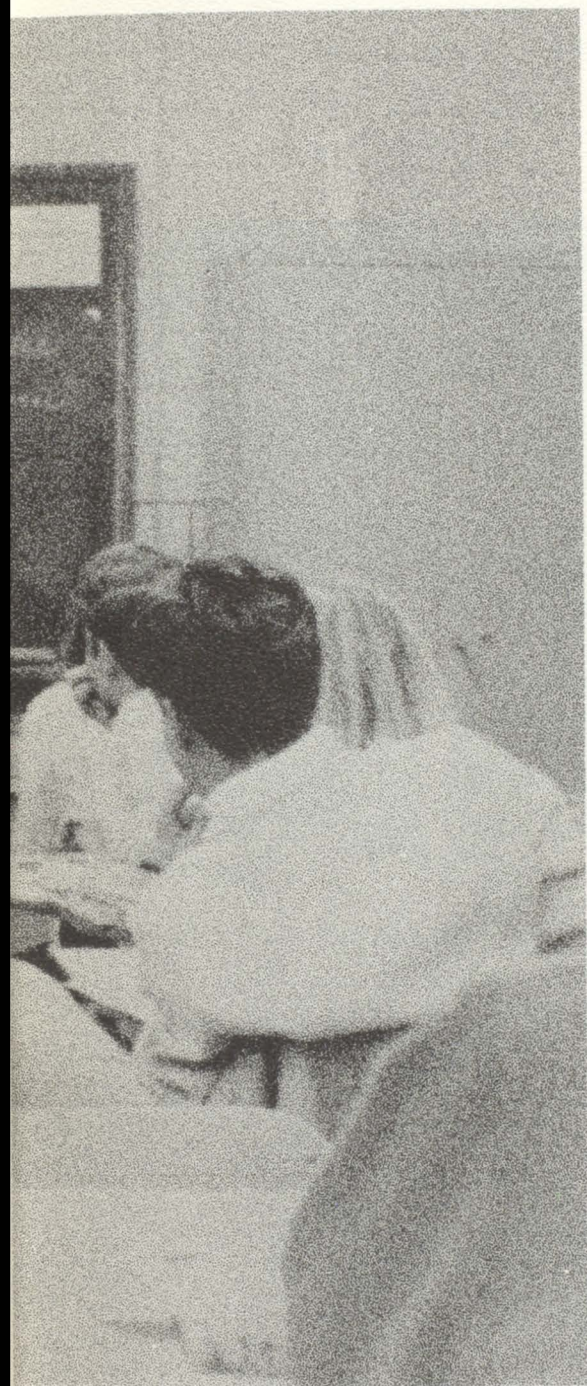

Try to remember one of the most important events in your life . . . graduation exercises. Remember attending the solemn Baccalaureate services with your peers. Remember donning your cap and gown for your final class meeting and the commencement of a new phase of life.

Mr. Black, Assistant Principal

Administration

Mr. Vorwald, Principal

Mr. Smith, Assistant Principal

The Gary Board of School Trustees: Mr. Frederick Ford, Mr. Andrew White, Mr. Donald Belec, Mr. Theodore Nering, Jr., Dr. Montague Oliver

Dr. Gordon L. McAndrew, Superintendent

Secretaries: Mrs. Mackley, Mrs. Bulot, Mrs. Skinta, Mrs. Nawrot, Mrs. Kolopanis, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Vance

Working in the guidance department are Mrs. Von Horn; Mrs. Skinta, secretary; Mrs. Hughes; Mr. Savin; Mr. Vaughn; and Mr. Molchan.

Miss Sharp spends much of her time on the telephone.

Guidance

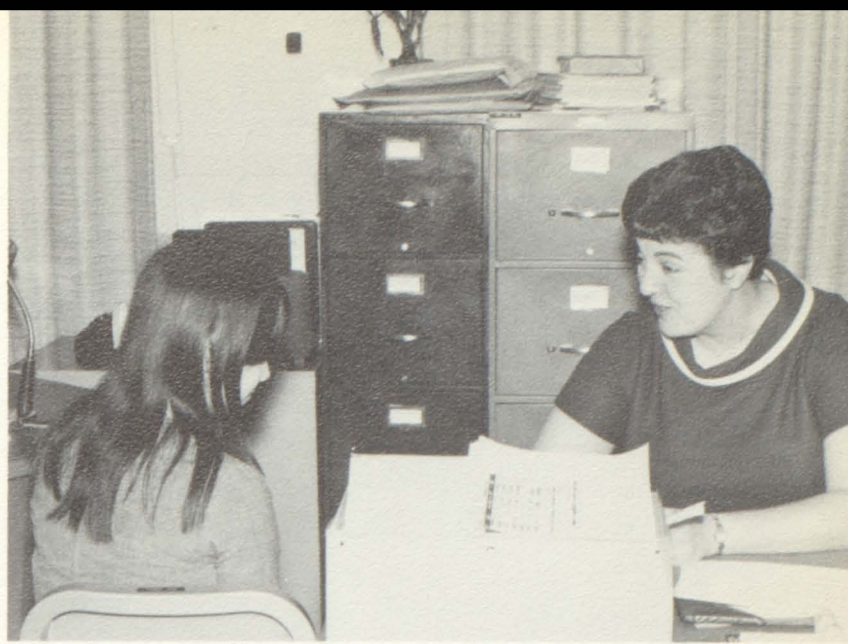

Organizing the programs of 2,200 students is a complicated job. The guidance department handles programing and the individual needs of the students. Counselors are always on hand to find college or vocational information.

Mrs. Von Horn confers with a student.

Mr. Molchan listens to the future plans of a student.

Mrs. Sewell lends a helping hand.

Peggy Sgouros looks over her SAT scores with Miss Sharp.

Mr. Vaughn takes time out to have his picture taken.

Mr. Strimbu takes pictures at all school dances.

Photography

Students enrolled in photography are introduced to the many facets of the field. They learn the correct methods of taking and developing pictures. Proficient students often become staff photographers on the newspaper or yearbook.

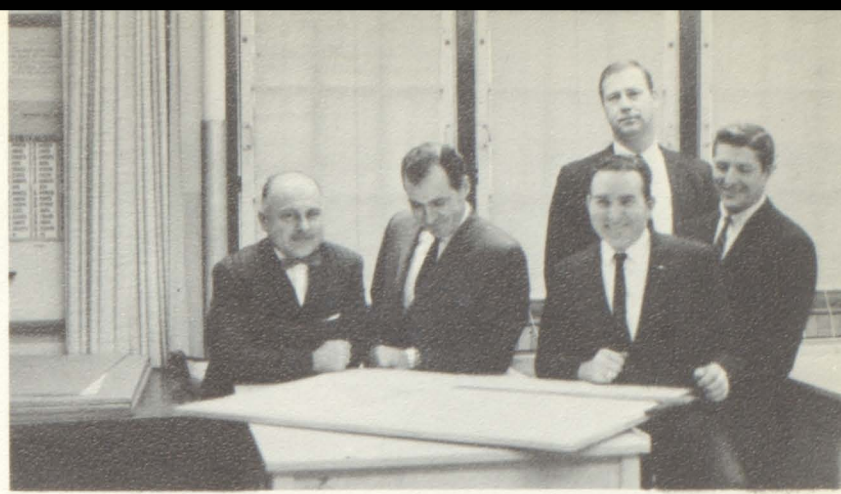

A photography class sets out on an excursion.

Different camera techniques are pointed out by Mr. Strimbu.

Intent at his work this woodshop student begins a new project.

The math department offers a wide variety of courses suitable to many students. For the college-bound student there is an accelerated math program consisting of Algebra I and II, Geometry, Trigonometry, and Calculus. These courses form a strong foundation for further advanced study. General math is a required course for all students not participating in the college preparatory program.

Mathematics

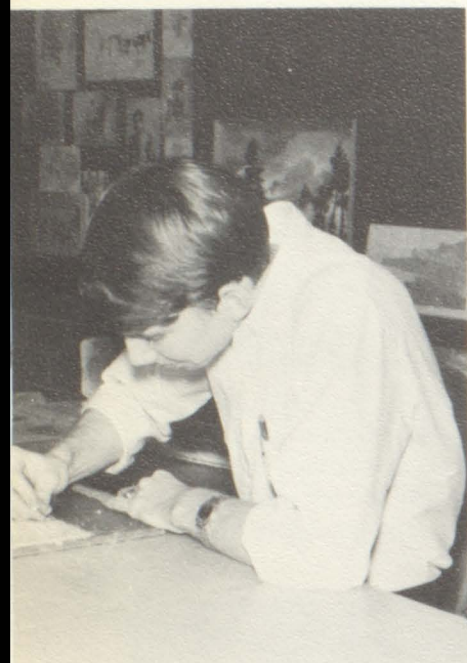

Some people think that bubble gum will help them through a hard geometry test.

Students in Mr. Burelli's art class work diligently on their projects

Fine Arts

An extensive art program is offered at Wallace. Commerical Art, Arts and Crafts, and the basic art classes are more than substantial for art-conscious students, as well as creative student planning to continue their study of art. Art teachers hope to instill in their pupils an appreciation of the arts.

Mosaics take many hours of snipping and gluing.

"The Invalids"

The art teachers are Mrs. Porter, Miss Todd, Mr. Elser, and Mr. Burelli.

Communications

These two girls are "on the air."

Mr. Ventura, radio instructor, Mr. Ryalls, WGVE chief engineer, and Mr. Dakich, speech teacher, enjoy listening to their students' radio programs.

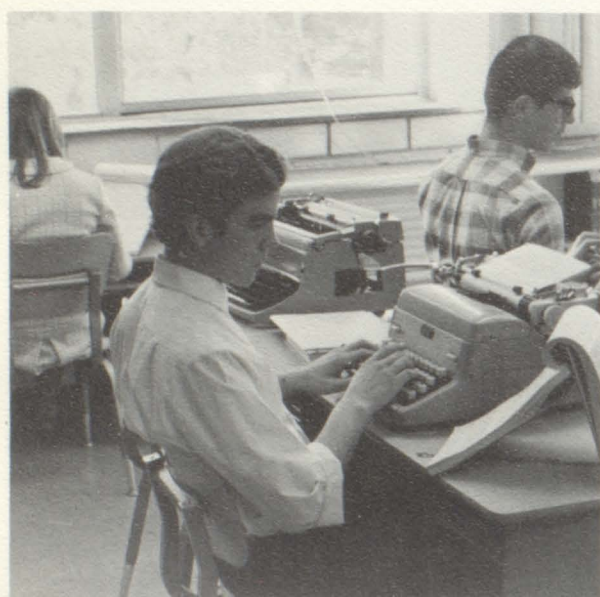

Wallace is fortunate to have one of the only high school operated radio stations in Gary. WGVE, 88.7 FM, has been broadcasting programs of educational, athletic, and cultural interest for fifteen years. Many students take part in the field of communications.

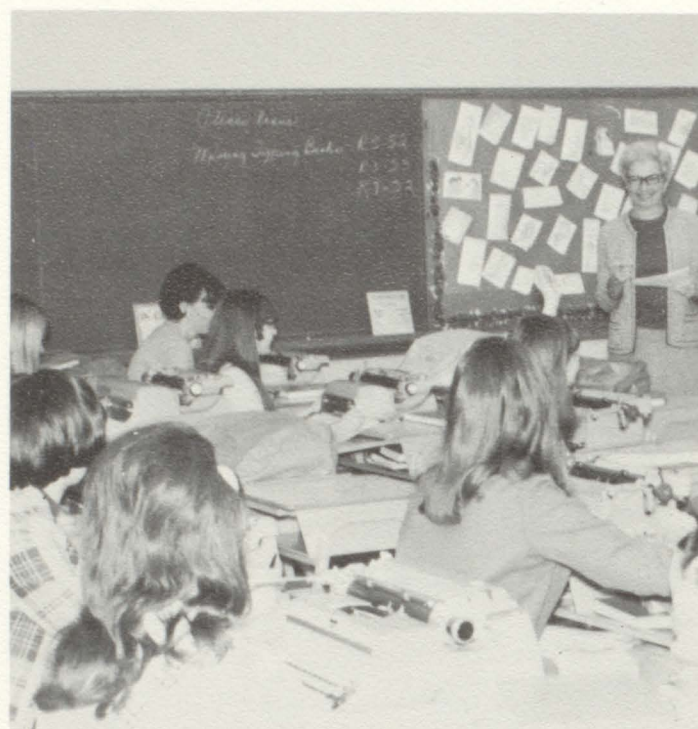

The boys seem to have everything well in hand.

The business teachers are, seated Miss Kadish, Mrs. Speck, and Mrs. Gerbick; standing, Mr. Koval, Mr. Yates, and Mrs. Sikora.

Mark Bossey can type ten words a minute now.

Mrs. Speck encourages her typing students.

Shorthand takes practice and patience.

Business

A variety of courses are open to students who plan to enter the business world after graduation. Secretarial training includes a two-year program of shorthand and typing. Business courses in book-keeping, Distributive Education, and Personal Typing are also available.

Mr. Yates teaches his class the tricks of the trade.

The typewriters in Mr. Koval's class ring with the spirit of Christmas.

The physical education department consists of; kneeling, Coach Rykovich, Coach Kukoy; and standing; Coach Ward, Coach Martin, Miss Fiddler, Coach Polizotto, and Coach Day.

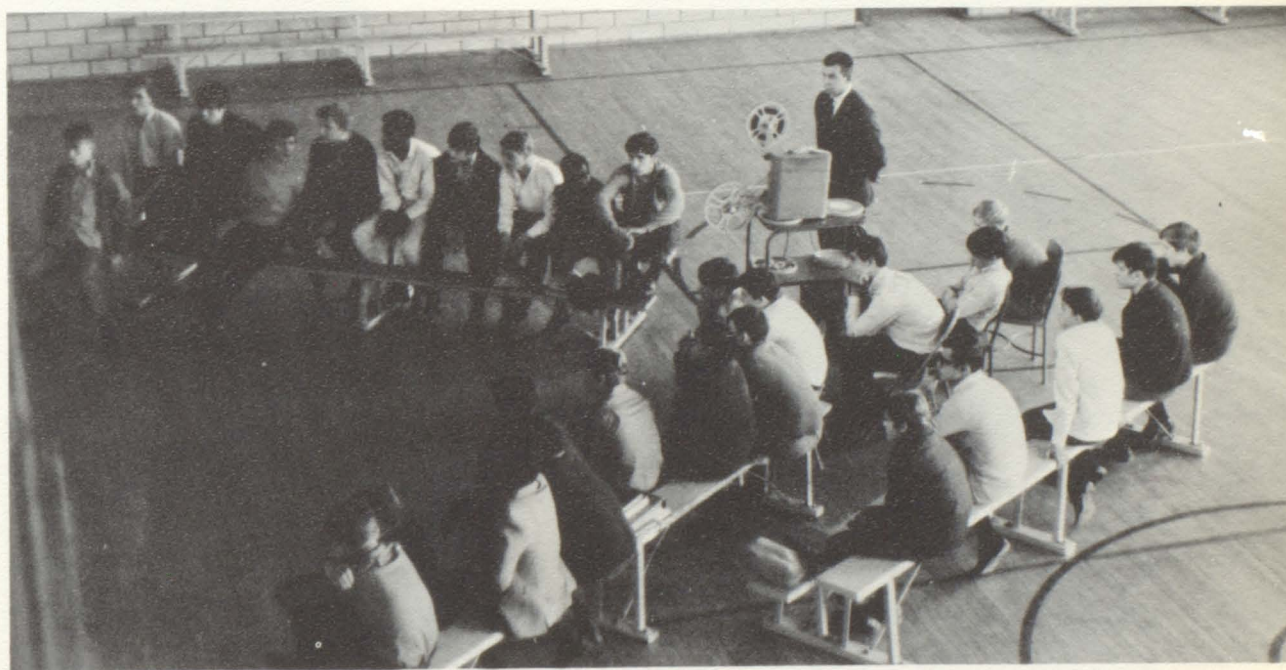

Freshmen boys build strength by doing push-ups.

Friendly competition in sports helps to develop a healthy attitude.

Physical Education

Physical education is required by the state and is scheduled for all freshman. Physical fitness plays an important role in education, and the athletic department is endowed with this responsibility. In addition, one semester of safety is mandatory for graduation. Driver Education is available for beginning drivers.

Films are a teaching aid occasionally employed in the physical fitness program.

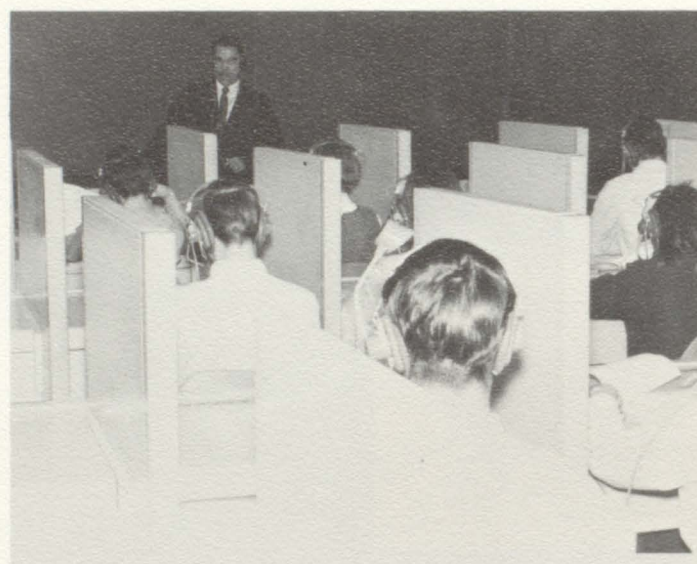

Mr. Meyer teaches German, Mrs. Valle, Spanish, and Mrs. Janjecic, French.

Foreign Language

Included in the curriculum at Wallace, are French, German, Spanish, Russian, and Latin. Languages are becoming increasingly important in the business, politics, and sciences of our ever-shrinking world. Studying a foreign language also renders students a deeper understanding of English.

Boredom has the same meaning in every language.

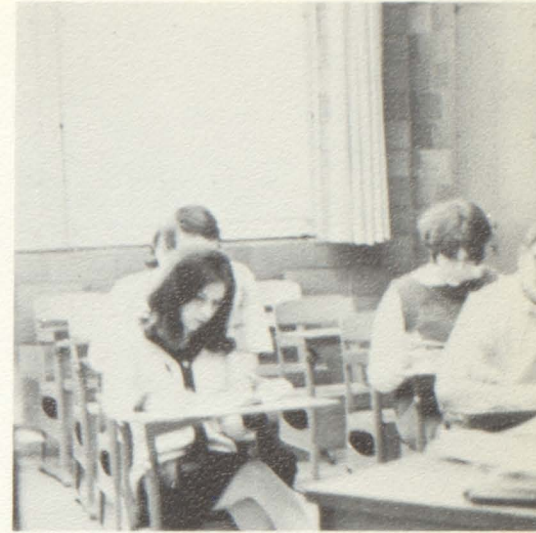

Pronunciation is an important part of learning a foreign language.

Mr. Mejia assists his Spanish II students.

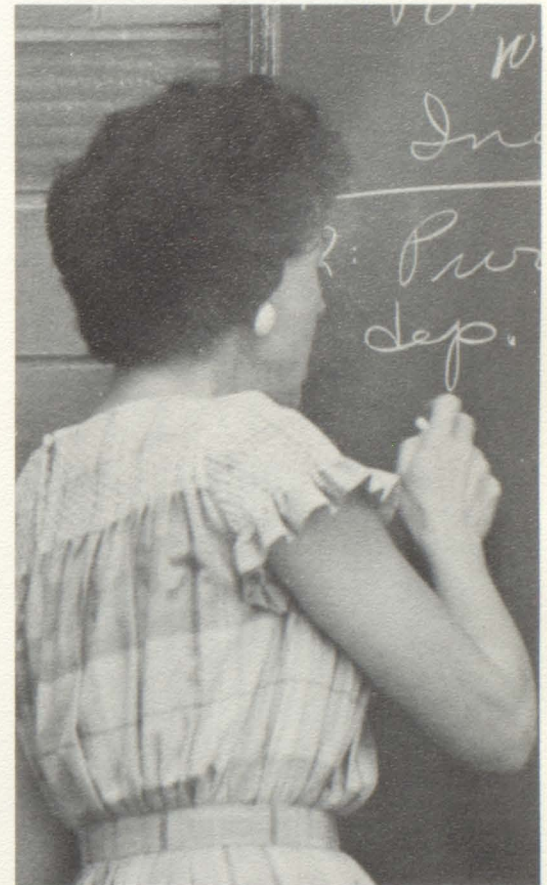

Mrs. Shelgren, Mr. Myers, and Miss Thomas combine their efforts in organizing the language department.

Student Council

Teachers were honored at the TASK banquet.

Members discuss important business.

Beginning with the first football game, Student Council members worked at selling tickets and at running concessions. Highlighting September was Homecoming. The Student Tutoring Service helped those who found themselves behind. News of the clubs and other school activities was posted on the Student Information Center. In November, class officers and representatives were inaugurated. Making Christmas baskets and planning the Inaugural Ball kept members busy until vacation. In appreciation of the administration and faculty, the TASK banquet brought the first semester to a close. Student Council also sponsored Spirit Week, SOS Week, and the Activity Days.

Officers are Debby Foler, Treas; Sue Schacki, Secretary; Nancy Bozich, V. Pres.; and Kathy Wise, President.

Co-sponsor, Mr. Russell, patiently listens to discussion at a meeting.

Officers are: Shirley Yovanoff, Secretary; Janet Hernandez, Sophomore Vice President; Jackie Czubik, President; Nancy Davies, Junior Vice President; and Linda Jones, Treasurer.

Girl's Club

Follow the yellow brick road!

One big birthday party for all.

During the second week of school, Girl Talk initiated freshman girls to the functions of Girl's Club. This year senior girls were urged to take their "little sisters" to Homecoming.

The annual turnabout was well worth all the hard work. Over two hundred couples attended. The theme of the dance was the familiar fairy tale, "The Wizard of Oz."

Among the varied activities of Girl's Club were the Birthday Potluck, Christmas caroling, and the Homeroom Sing. Miss Kouvelas and Mrs. Sikora sponsor the club.

Co-sponsors, Mrs. Sikora and Miss Kouvelas, admit couples at the turnabout.

F.T.A.

Introducing students to the teaching profession is the purpose of the Future Teachers of America. Students have an opportunity to become more acquainted with teachers by acting as assistants and participating in the Stu-Teaching Day.

A candy sale and Christmas Party are the two main activities of the club.

The club sponsor, Miss Leskow, listens at initiation.

The officers of Auditorium Council are Angela Diamond, Head Usher; Debbie Rosco, Vice President; Nancy Bozich, President; Karin Bailey, Treasurer, and Linda Jones, Secretary.

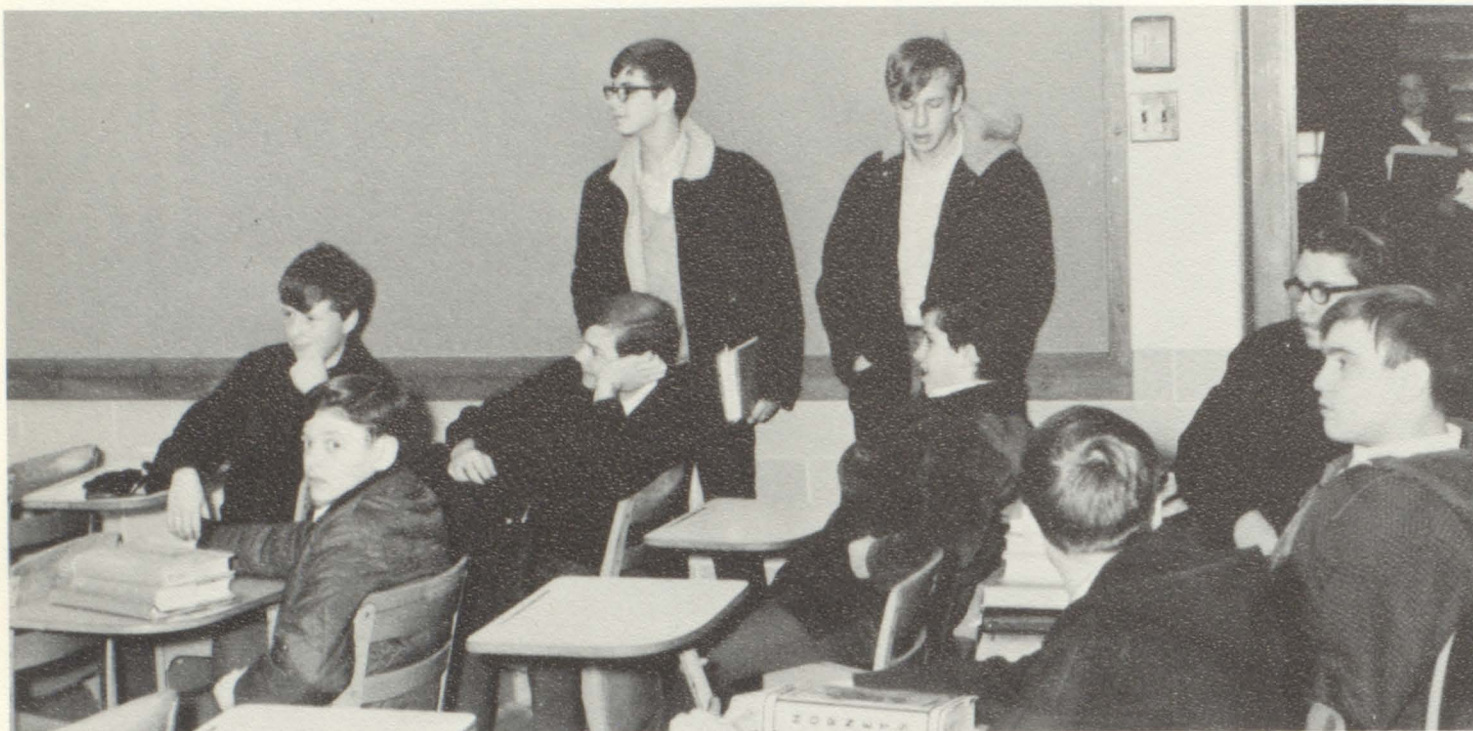

Auditorium Council

At school functions such as Activity Days, class meetings, and Band and Orchestra concerts, you will always find an Auditorium Council member handing out programs to viewers.

In order to become a member, the student must first show enthusiasm by going through a busy week of carrying umbrellas, passing toothpicks to teachers and remaining silent for one day. Mrs. Frances Busby is sponsor of Auditorium Council.

Debbie Rosco and Sandi Consorti distribute programs to teachers.

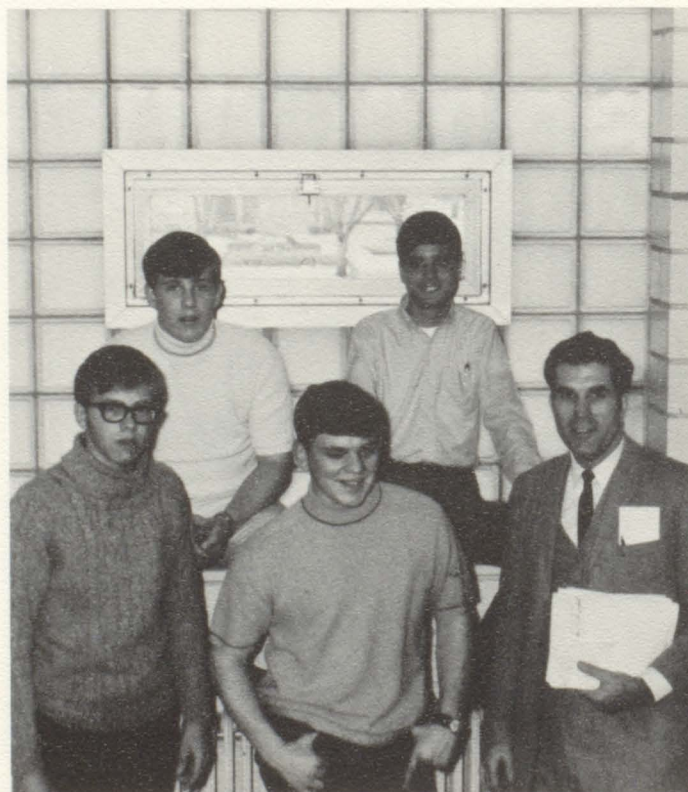

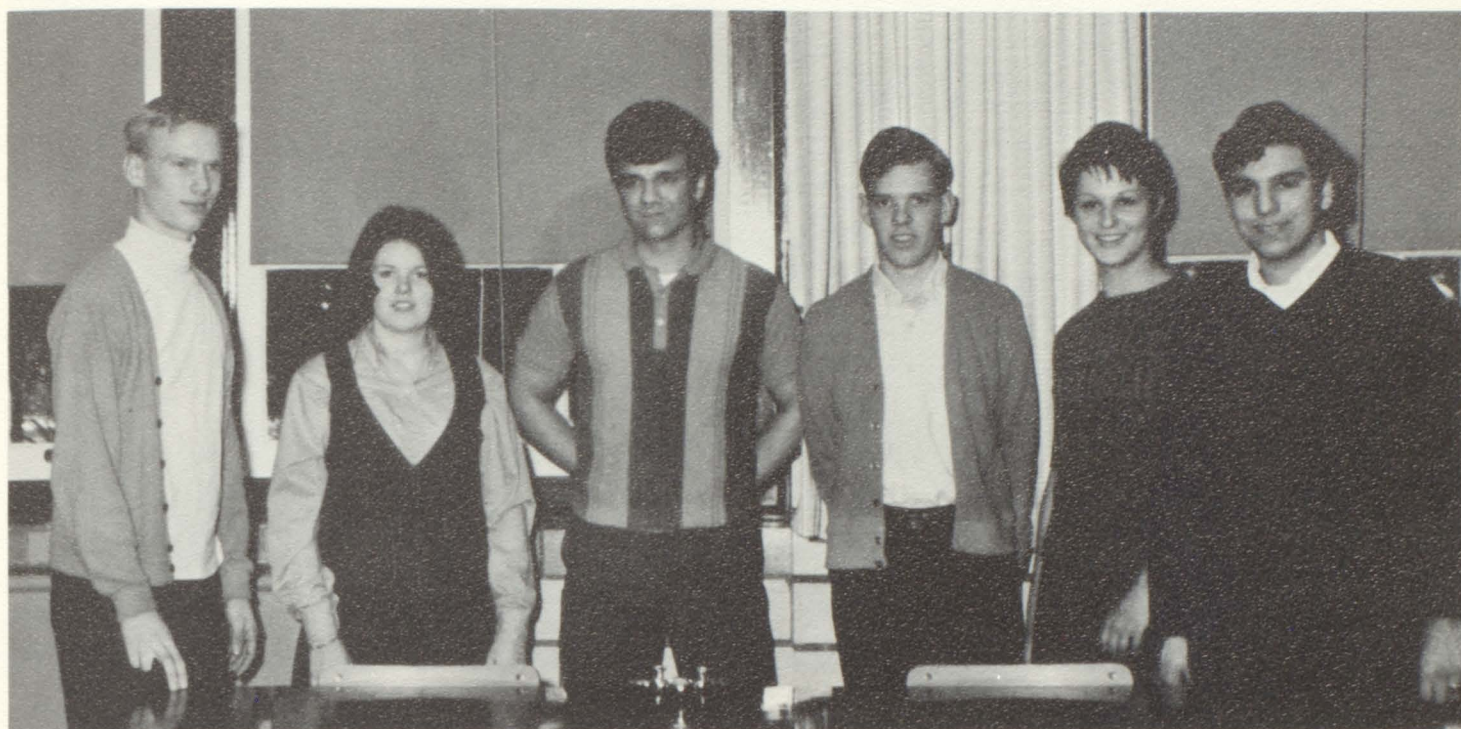

Active members attend a Boys' Club meeting.

Boys' Club

Selling spirit buttons and cowboy hats were two of the fund-raising projects of Boys' Club. Highlights of the year's activities included a Bull's basketball game and a Notre Dame hockey game. The boys formed a cheering block at basketball games which demonstrated their great school spirit. Leading Boys' Club through a busy, profitable year was their sponsor Mr. Molchan.

Biology Club officers are; Craig Atkisson, Vice President; Becky Roby, Refreshment Chairman; Nick Korzow, President; Jack Seifert, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer; Linda Burford, Secretary-Treasurer; and Mark Benjamin, Publicity Chairman.

Miss Lemon and Nick Korzow make future plans for the club.

Biology Club

Biology Club offers to students an opportunity to further their interest in science. Special programs include guest speakers and films.

Members participated in many activities several of which were a Christmas, a Valentine's and an End-of-the-year Party.

Miss Lemon and Mr. Vereb are co-sponsors of Biology Club.

Nick Korzow, president, conducts a meeting.

Students learn library skills with the help of visual aids.

Auxilia

Dedicated to providing service to students and teachers, members of Auxilia assist the librarians during their study halls and before and after school.

Members raised money for the Francis Kraft Memorial Scholarship by selling book covers and paperbacks.

F.H.A.

Promoting fellowship among girls and hoping to make them better future wives and mothers is the purpose of Future Homemakers of America. The members do a project each month to fulfill state qualifications. Their fund-raising projects include the selling of cookbooks and bake sales. The club awards a scholarship to an eligible member.

Members discuss a current project.

Olympians

The "Three Little Pigs" performed by the slaves, the Latin I students, highlighted the Olympians annual Roman Banquet. In the audience were members dressed as wrestlers and gladiators. Featured on the menu for this gala affair was roast pig.

Other activities of the club included their main fund-raising project, selling taffy apples. Some of the members attended the annual city-wide Latin Conference held in February.

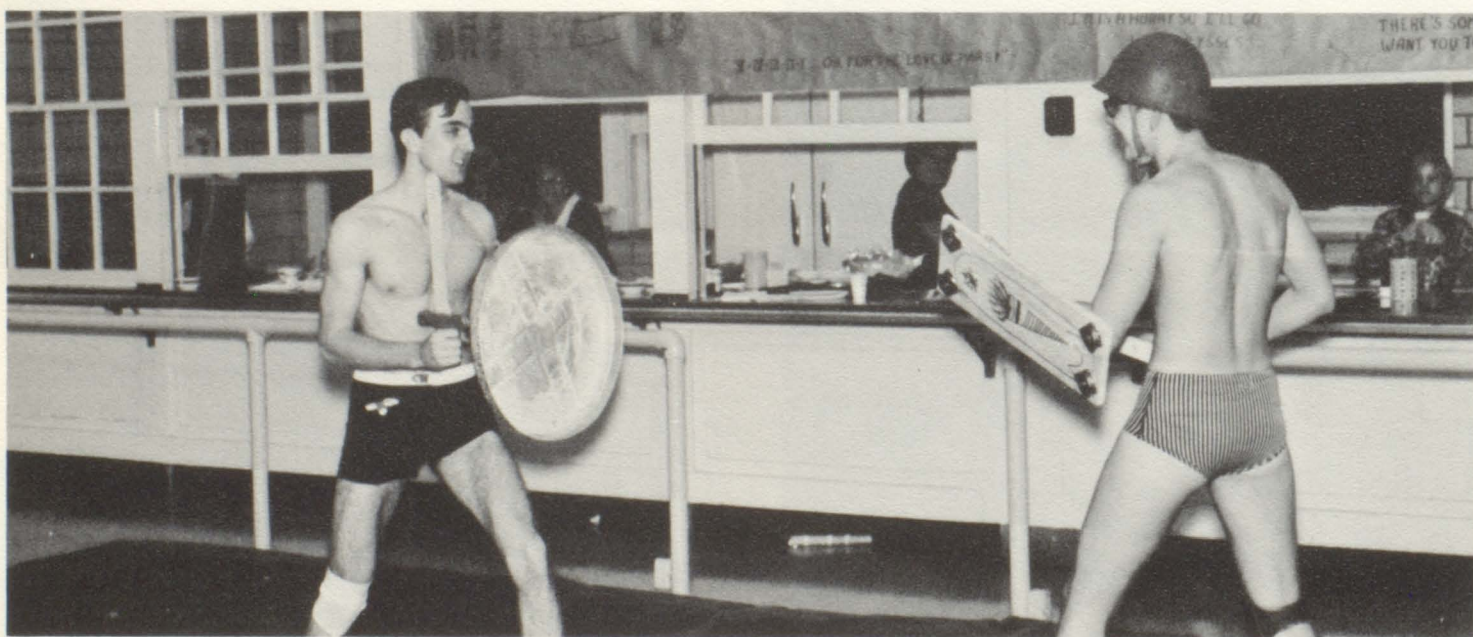

A picnic concluded their successful year. Olympians is sponsored by Mrs. Shelgren.

Officers are Gloria Galetka, Treas.; Joe Manley, Pres.; Jackie Czubik, V. Pres.; Not pictured is Linda Birdwell, Sec.

Olympians enjoy their roasted pig.

Mike Hedrick and Dave Hoffman fight it out.

German Club

Pushing pennies across the room with noses and eating German Chocolate cake highlighted the initiation. Several reports on German customs were given throughout the year. A Christmas Party and a trip to Chicago to shop in German stores and to eat in a German restaurant completed the activities.

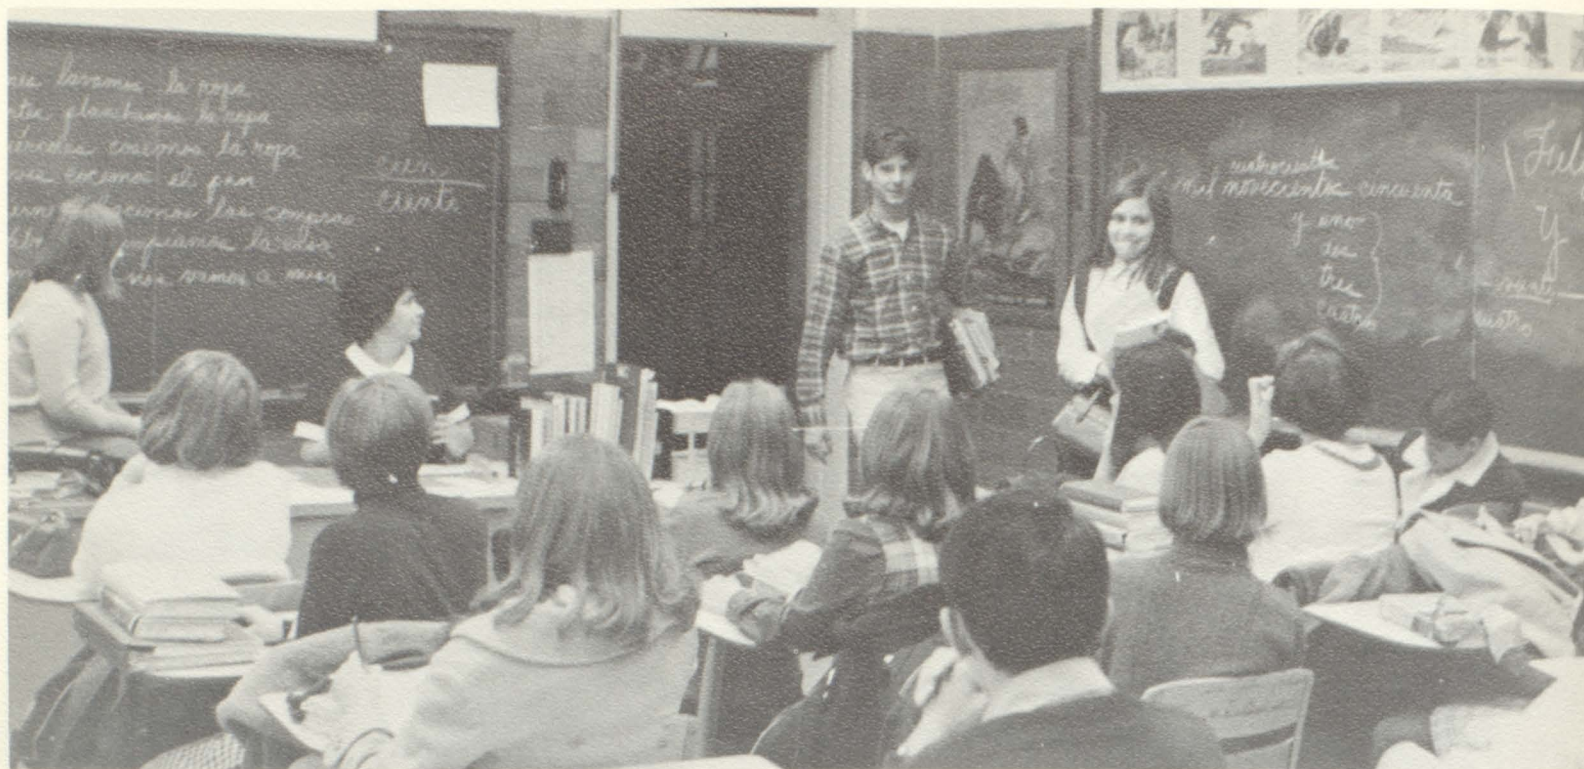

Club sponsor, Mr. Meyer, officiates.

Officers are Levorn Mackins, Sec.; Gloria Harmon, Treas.; Karen Lesniak, V. Pres.; and Cathy Allman, Pres.

The Club plans a trip to Chicago.

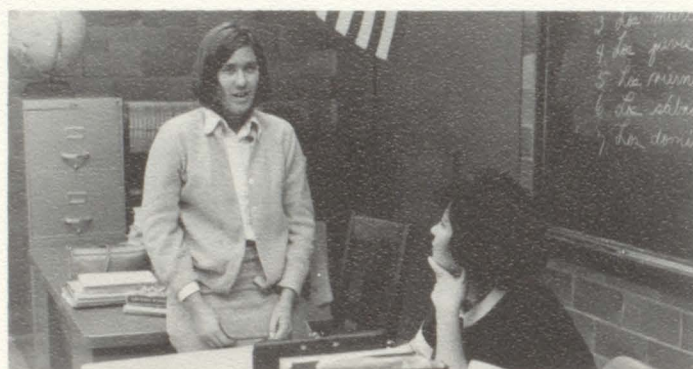

All eyes are upon Tom and Carol as they arrive late at an important meeting of Spanish Club.

Los Amigos

Members of Los Amigos acquire a greater understanding of the Spanish language and customs by conducting their meetings in Spanish.

The annual Christmas Party was held at Betty Praschak's house. The members attended the Ballet Folklórico in Chicago, and ended the year's activities by having dinner in a Spanish restaurant.

President Linda Dzunda and Mrs. Valle, club sponsor, discuss the upcoming activities of the club.

French Club

By joining Les Parisiens, French students learn more of the country of France and the customs of its people. Special programs included a Mardi Gras, seeing a movie in Chicago, and hearing the head of the French Dept. from I. U. speak on the topic of French schools. Mrs. Doris Janjecic sponsors the club.

New members are initiated.

Russian Club

The Russian Club meets every other Wednesday night in the homes of the members. The purpose of the club is to acquaint its members with the customs and traditions of the Russian people. The club will take a trip to Chicago to see a Russian ballet and to go to a Russian restaurant.

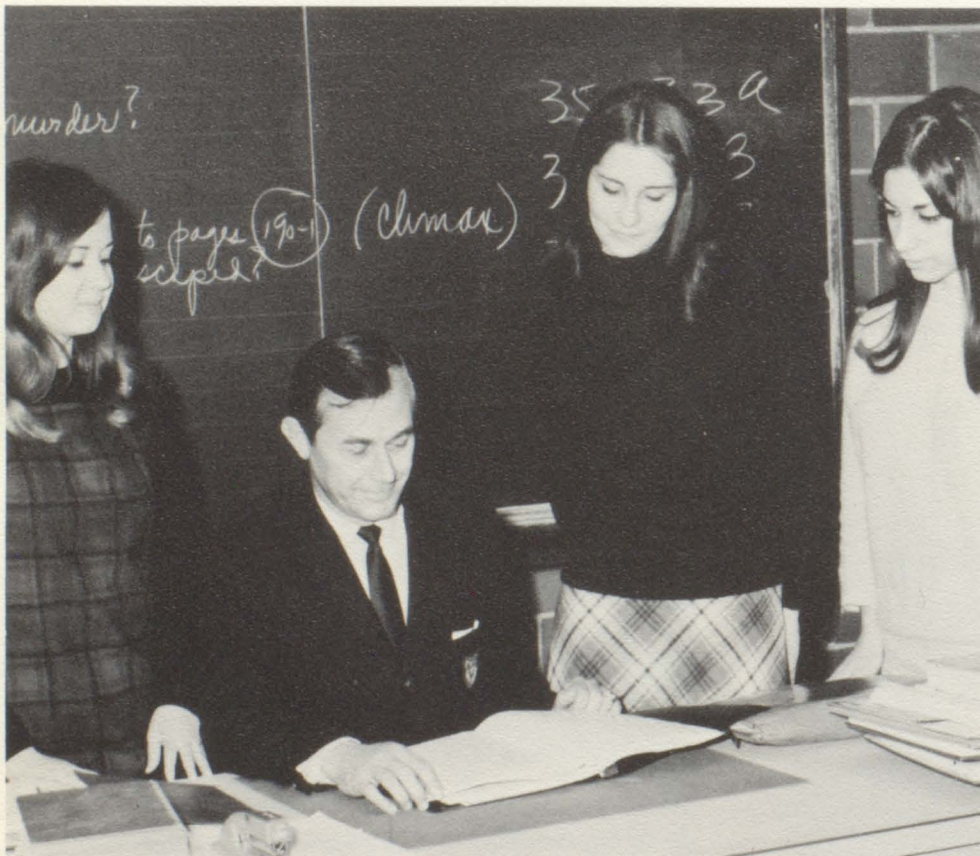

Russian Club officers are Cathy Sreckovich, V. Pres.; Jerry Kaczur, Treasurer; Jeralyn Dusich, Secretary; Mike Shaver, President.

Pam and Leta choose pictures for the club section.

George and Henry, sports editors, lay out their section.

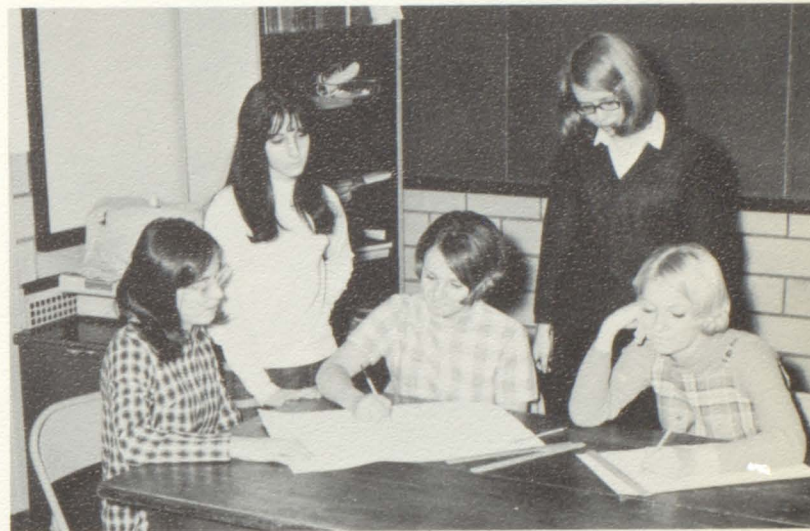

Linda Stephens, assistant editor, Debbie Rosco, editor, and Shirley Yovanoff, assistant editor, watch as Mr. O'Curran approves the plans.

Patti Polturich, Jerry Mancilla, and Paul Hernandez watch as Mike German types out his story.

Philosopher

The Philosopher is published by Journalism students of Wallace. The opinions are those of the writers and not necessarily of the school administration or faculty. Mr. John Hancock is the advisor.

Co-editors Linda Wineinger and Jim Eng listen to Mr. Hancock's opinions of the latest issue.

Chess Club

Here is another Chess Club candy sale.

Chess Club members meet every Tuesday. They enjoy playing advanced chess games such as four-man or blind. One of the main events during the year is the tournament with their chief rival, Horace Mann. Selling candy in the alcove after school is their fund-raising project. Chess Club is sponsored by Mr. Pieroni.

Chess Club officers are: Joe DelleRose, Treasurer; Randy Ligocki, President; and Dan Bade, Vice President.

Thespian officers are: Dan Smolinski, Vice President; Sharon Wheeler, Treasurer; Kathy Bensie, Secretary; and Greg Martinez, President.

Thespians

Thespians, the drama club, trains those interested in drama as a career. Members perform plays, skits, and musicals. Mrs. Busby directs the club.

Inkpots

The literary club, Inkpots, began the year with the initiation of new members at Kathy Wise's house. Cathy Allman's home was the scene of the annual Christmas potluck. Other events included a stage play and a dinner at Mama Puntillo's. Miss Ryan and Miss Kubiak sponsor the club.

Pica Club

Any program printed for one of our school events is done by the Lew Wallace Pica Club. The club, which meets bi-monthly, attempt to promote craftsmanship and to encourage discussion and to arrive at solutions of practical problems. This active club, named for a typed of print setting, promotes its main ideals to further an interest in all area of printing.

Announcements go to press.

Intricate maneuvers.

Officers are Marilyn Hulick, Vice-President; Shirley Yovanoff, President; Linda Rusnock, Secretary; and Joyce Warieka, Treasurer.

Just like Romeo and Juliet!

Booster Club

Supporting our teams and keeping school spirit high by cheering at games is a major function of the Booster Club.

Adding to the excitement of Homecoming, members of this club decorated Gilroy Stadium and made a large paper football for the team to run through.

Many long hours were spent in the preparation of the annual Booster Club Turnabout. This year's dance, named "Romeo and Juliet," was held on February 21.

Miss Angela Hannagan, who is also an English teacher at Wallace and director of the cheerleaders, is the sponsor of this club.

Just a brief rest between dances.

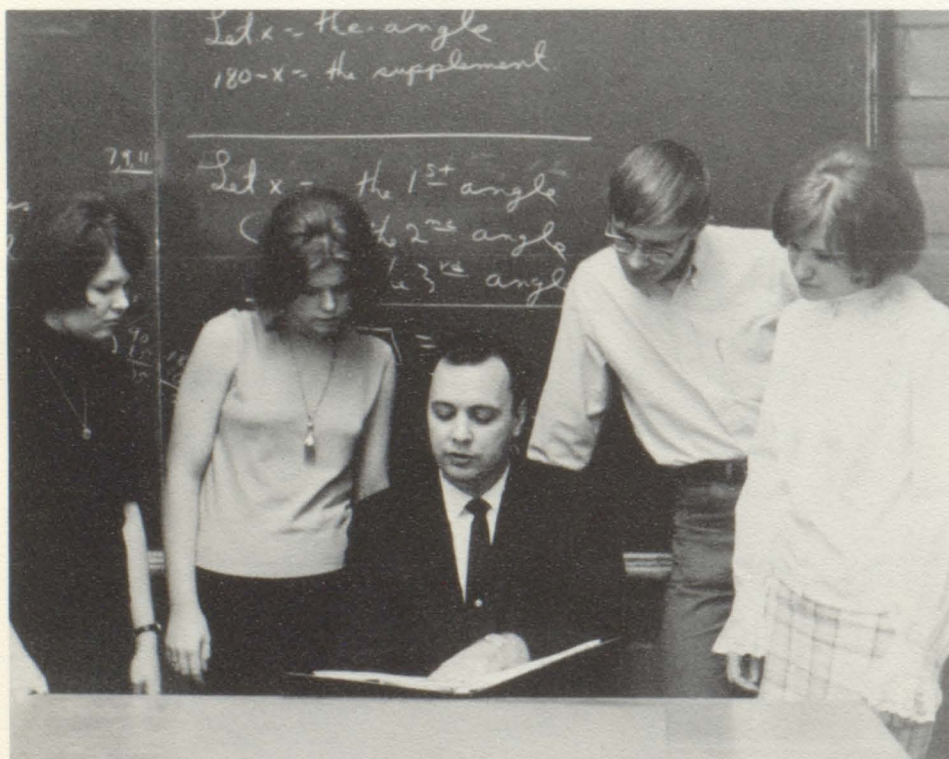

Klub Kem

The main objective of Klub Kem is to promote an interest in the field of science, especially chemistry. Beside the regular meetings, members took a trip to the planetarium, the aquarium, and the Field Museum. Klub Kem is sponsored by Mr. Schoon.

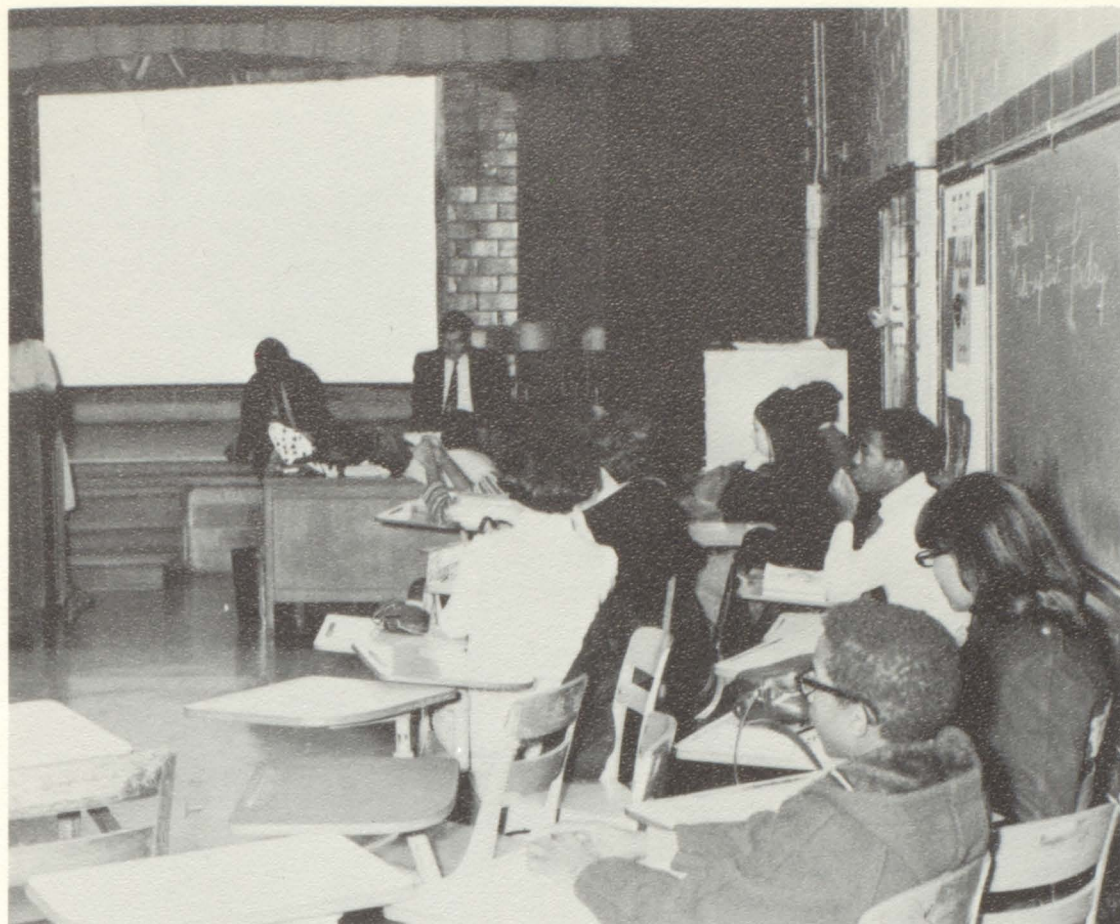

Klub Kem officers are; Linda Seaman, Secretary; Yo Kendron, President; Jake Pruitt, Vice President; and Jerry Kaczur, Treasurer.

Math Club

Math Club officers are; Becky Roby, Vice President; Helen Perdue, President; Mr. O'Connell, Sponsor; Randy Ligocki, Treasurer; and Lynn Gorden, Secretary.

Mr. O'Connell sponsors one of the newest clubs at Wallace, Math Club. Members meet twice a month with different math teachers to discuss various problems in mathematics. Students interested in math now have this opportunity to expand beyond the regular curriculum.

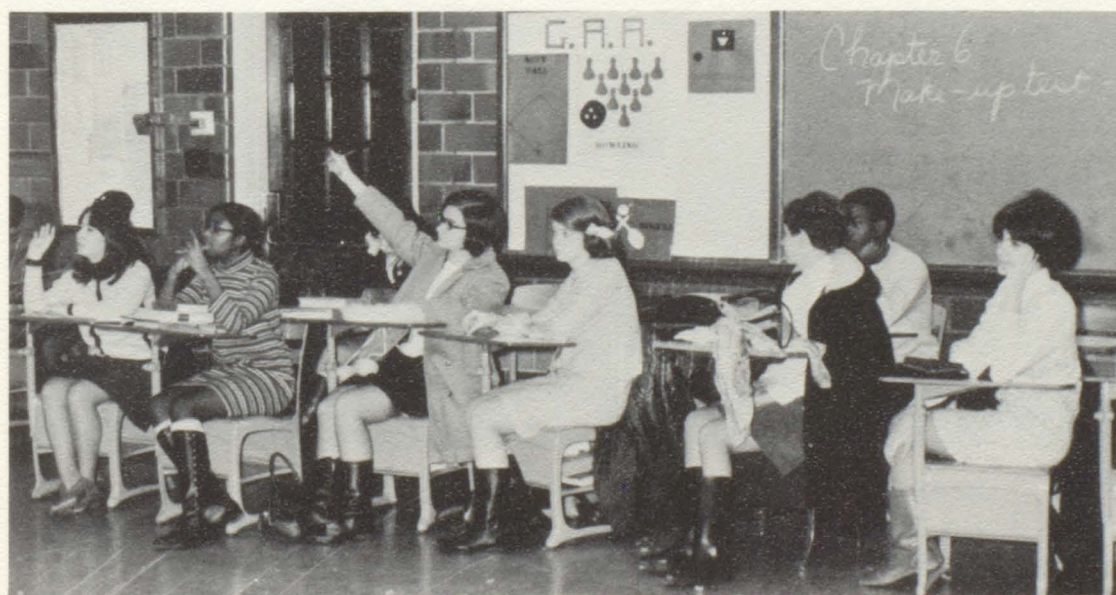

Another meeting is about to begin.

Human Relations Forum

The purpose of this club is to stimulate better inter-student and student-faculty relationships. Meetings are held every Friday. Guest speakers included Dr. McAndrews, Mayor Hatcher, and Lew Wallace teachers. Officers are; Carla Davidson, President; Sharon Rouse, Vice President; Andra Talley, Secretary; and Betty Charnetsky, Treasurer. Mr. Hancock and Mr. Stankewiecz are the sponsors.

ROTC

The purpose of the ROTC is to establish the foundation for active citizenship and to provide basic military training.

The Lew Wallace ROTC was formed in 1942 and has been part of the curriculum ever since. In the past twenty-six years, the unit has been awarded many trophies for outstanding achievements.

During the three-year course students learn about leadership, drill, weapons, first aid, tactics, and American military history.

Jim Ritchie sets up another lamp for display.

DECA, the Distributive Education Clubs of America, presents a program of learning while receiving on-the-job training. The entire course takes two years. Juniors receive instruction at school for one credit, and seniors earn three credits for the year one of which is for on-the-job training. Mr. Peters instructs classes in merchandising, retailing, and salesmanship.

Officers are: Tim Favia, Vice President; Chuck Hoftey, President; Mary Galindo, Secretary; and Jim Ritchie, Treasurer.

Band and Orchestra

Both the band and the orchestra had a busy year. By selling magazines and candy, members of the band were able to raise enough money to purchase new uniforms. Orchestra members won first place in both the district and state music contests. To top the year's activities the band and the orchestra combined to present their Spring Concert.

Larry Martin's First season as head coach ended with a successful 5-4 record. After sizzling summer practice, the Martin Marauders faced their first foe, Valpo, whom they battled to a 13-12 loss. Seeking their first win, the Hornets met Froebel and won the scoring contest 39-25. Martin's men then faced rival, Horace Mann, in a hard-fought homecoming loss, 20-0. A fired up team hurled a victory over Emmerson with Tom Harris scoring touchdowns. Undefeated Hobart was next in line for the Hornets. The game was played well by both teams, but Hobart came out ahead 7-6. Highly ranked Andrean, the gridders' biggest rival, handed our team another one point loss in one of our closest games, 13-12. The Hornet defense, led by captains Mike Milich, Dave Cooper, and Bob Buha, held Andrean to their second lowest scoring game. At a muddy Gilroy field, the Tolleston team was handed a 27-13 loss by the underdog Hornets. Roosevelt was the Hornets' next opponent. On a wet, windy night Coach Martin led his team to a 13-6 win. In the last game of the season Crown Point was defeated 19-0 by the Wallace gridmen.

Tom Harris, fullback, was the high scorer of the year with 74 points. Other outstanding players were guards, Andy Zdobyak and Jim Mandon, halfbacks, John Sikora and Jim Eloff, and tackle Tom Galovic. The Hornets were hampered by the early season loss of Bill Slama, halfback, who made a good recovery but was still unable to play.

Reserves Squelch Opponents

Under the leadership of Coach Mike Jennings, this years reserve team finished the season with a 5-1-1 record. The team defeated West Side 30-0, Froebel 42-6, Crown Point 19-0 and Emerson 27-0. They also acquired a win through an East Chicago Washington forfeit. The teams only setbacks were a Horace Mann tie 12-12, and a loss to rival Andrean 6-0.

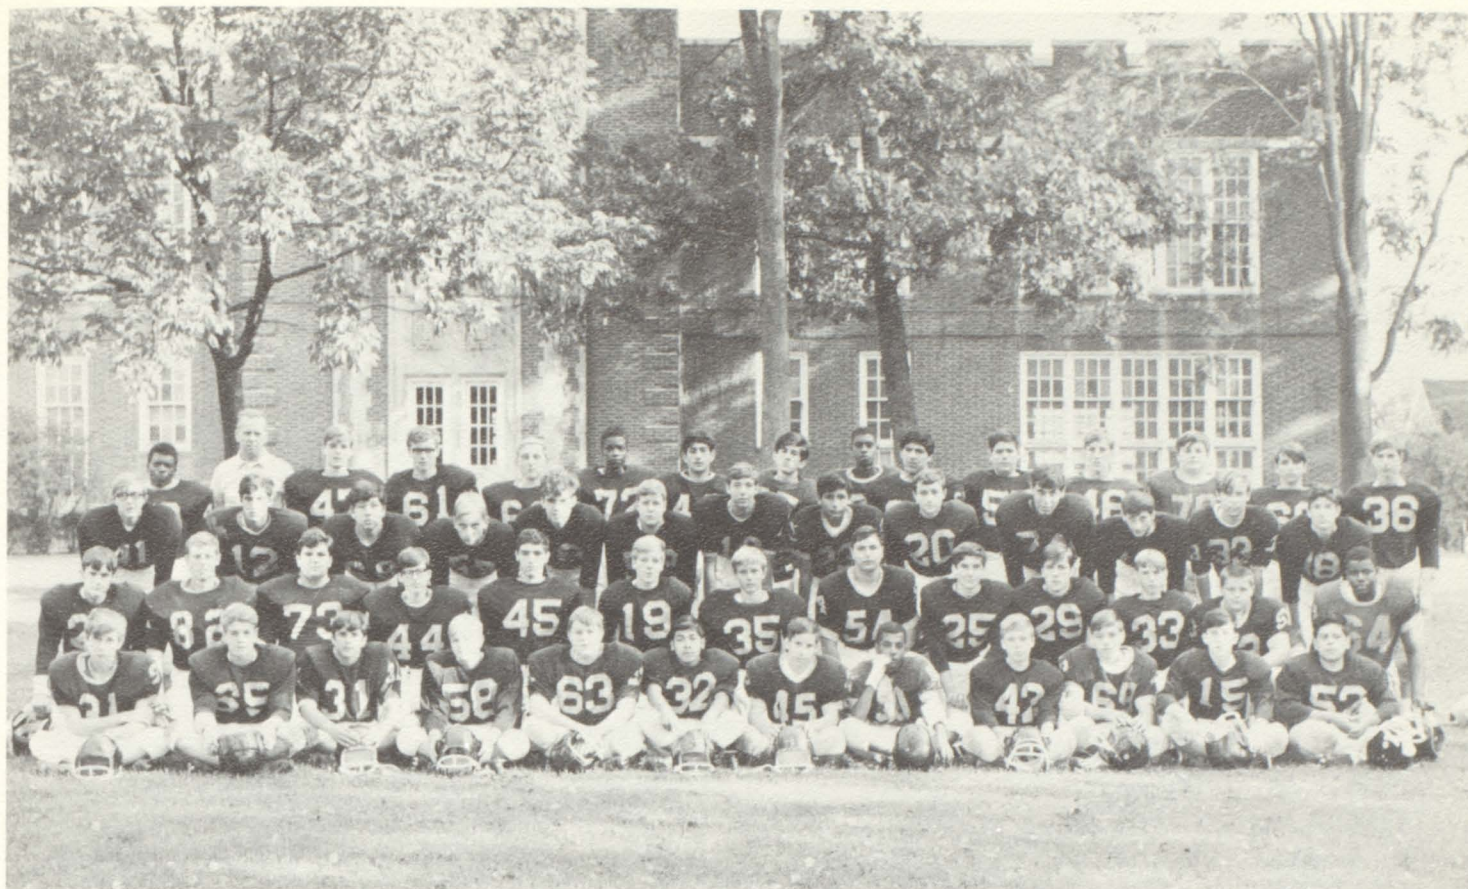

The team was led by Junior halfback, Dick Kelley, who scored five touchdowns. Other players that contributed to the winning season were Vince Naccarato, Tom White, Mike Guyton, Atse Kretevski and John Maksimovich.

Reserves come to formation.

In the first row from left to right are; P. Gordon, C. Hunst, Z. Hamilton, D. Kelley, B. Hallas, B. Dragich, D. Drotar, T. Nikolich, A. Krstevski, C. Shultz, J. Maksimovich, B. Johnson; middle row; F. Cunningham, C. Kruz, B. Stochel, N. Maksimovich, G. Gerbick, D. Karriman, T. Zieba, V. Naccarato, T. White, R. Yellich, J. Boone, D. Dotson, A. Sopko; standing; Coach M. Jennings, D. Meiu, R. Ortoski, D. Butkus, D. Delarose, G. Davis, M. Guyton, B. Fulton, M. Sidowski, J. Bravo, T. Logan, and J. Chidester.

Freshmen Gain Experience

Coach Irv Elser coached his freshmen grid team to a respectable 4 win, 2 loss record. One of the high points of the season was beating Anderson. The freshmen team lost the city championship to Pulaski in a hard fought battle. This year experience will be the foundation of the varsity teams of the future.

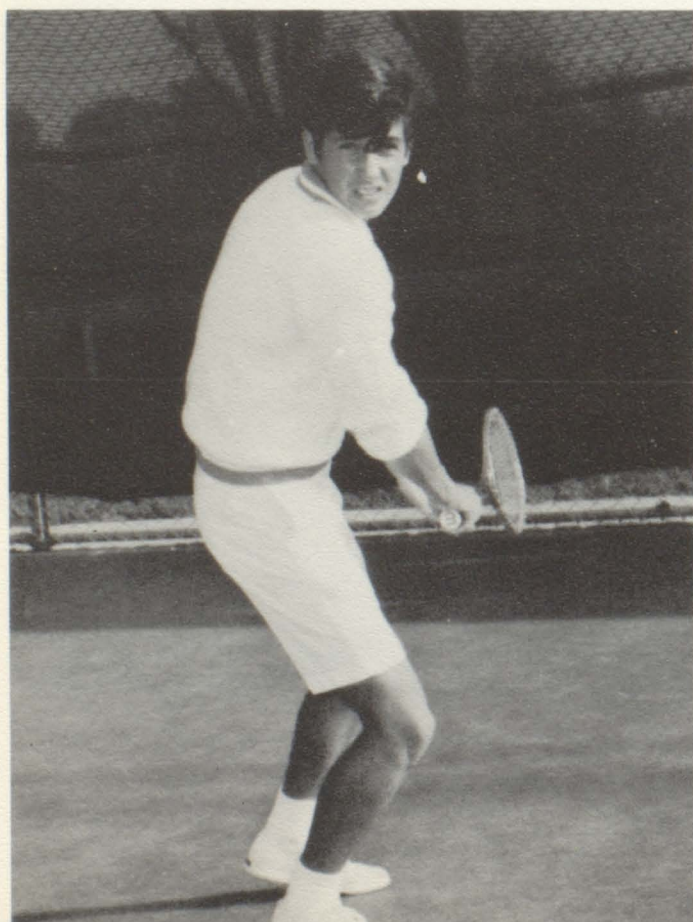

Freshmen sweep for a gain.

Kneeling are; V. Rock, R. Goad, D. Tipton, J. Kaczur, M. Madrowski; standing; R. Alabach, M. Regan, B. Johnson, D. Batman, B. Kryston, and A. Korac.

Netmen Excel, Win Conference

An 8-1 record was the pay-off for hard practice as the Netmen won conference for the second straight year. Dropping only one match, that one to Gary Wirt, the netters, lead by Goad and Johnson, had another brilliant season. Goad and Johnson again displayed their skill in their performance at sectionals. All in all it was a great year for the Wallace netmen.

Rusty Goad serves up a victory.

Bob Rodriguez consults Coach Troy.

Harriers Hustle Four Wins

Winning only 4 duos must have been disappointing for the young squad, finishing fifth in the city. Despite the fine running of Frudakis and Schaffer, the record was due mainly to lack of experience. In the future, however this group should mature to a leading contender for city honors.

Varsity Basketball

A four and sixteen season would seem like a failure to many, but to the young men who gained experience and status, as well as notching four victories, it was a success. With only two seniors on a squad of eleven, the Hornets found themselves giving up experience and height in the lineup. Despite this, the Hornets were likely to catch fire, and when they were hot, they could beat the best.

Our season opened with a game against first seeded E. C. Roosevelt. The rebounding and shooting of Jim Bradley prevailed over our "four corner delay" offense and we lost. Three games later our superior board work and the shooting of Rich Svihra brought our first victory. Later in the season, Coach Kukoy went to Ken Vandersteen to preserve a victory against Hammond Morton, our second victory. We went two for two to end the season before losing to Mann in the sectionals. Our third victory was a result of breaking Hobart's controlled offense and team balance. Our final victory was attributed to Denny McDowell's defensive ability, not to mention the effort turned in by Pat Duggan and Frank Bumbales in defeating River Forest. Our fifth victory wasn't in points but in stature. We intimidated a taller, older, and faster team, Gary Froebel, by staying with point for point for four quarters before succumbing in the overtime.

With nine returning for varsity and the remaining positions being filled by the successful Junior Varsity players, there is an indication that perhaps sacrificing one four and sixteen season will bring us a basketball dynasty.

Freshman Basketball

Coach Ward's freshman cagers compiled a 13-8 record, the best of all winter sports teams. To add to their success, they netted a third in the Calumet Invitational Tourney and a second in the City Tourney bowing to Beckman.

The starting six for the frosh were J. Allen, B. Darter, R. Rowe, O. Jackson, K. Bumbales, and D. McAdams.

Freshman basketball players are: (back row) R. Dickerson, K. Bumbales, R. Adank, O. Jackson, D. Bolds, H. Gould, D. McAdams, B. Darter, and Coach Ward. (front row) J. Modrowski, M. Psimos, J. Givan, F. Fox, T. Mihalic, J. Langel, T. Langel, K. White, R. Rowe, and T. McColly.

Reserve Basketball

An 11 and 9 finish by the reserves is an encouraging clue of things to come. The retirement of Coach Polizotto sent Coach Kukoy up to varsity and left the reserve duties to Mike Jennings. Coach Jennings took the job and guided the team to its successful finish in years.

The high point of the season for the players was playing before five thousand people in the final game of the Reserve Tourney at Memorial Auditorium. Coach Jennings had reason to be proud of "Moose" Harvey and Ian Crittendon, who will probably move up to varsity next year, and Joe Djokic and Allen Blackman, two fast-improving sophomores.

Wrestling

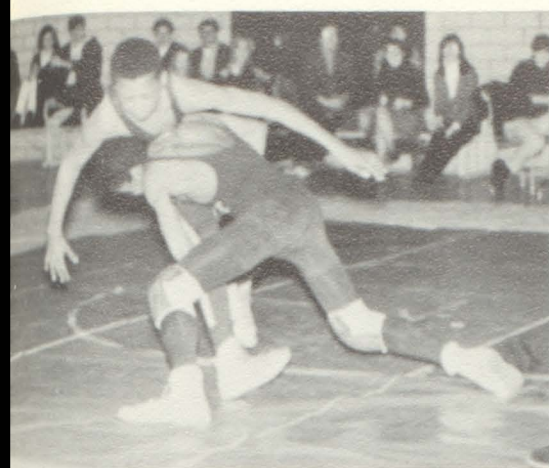

Jack Walker is on the bottom of the referee's start.

Coach Rykovich's grapplers suffered the consequences of being deprived of the adequate facilities for their early training. The year ended with a tough 0-9 record. West Side beat the grapplers 49-3 in what seemed to be the worst season Lew Wallace wrestling has ever seen. Other scores were against Horace Mann, 35-10, and Hammond High, 52-3. Mike Mussallem finished the season with a 1-10 record, Jack Walker with a 3-5 record, and Dave Watkins with a 3-7.

The brightest note on this year's team was Rodney Walker at ninety-five pounds. He won first place in the city meet and second in the sectionals. His overall record was 11-1.

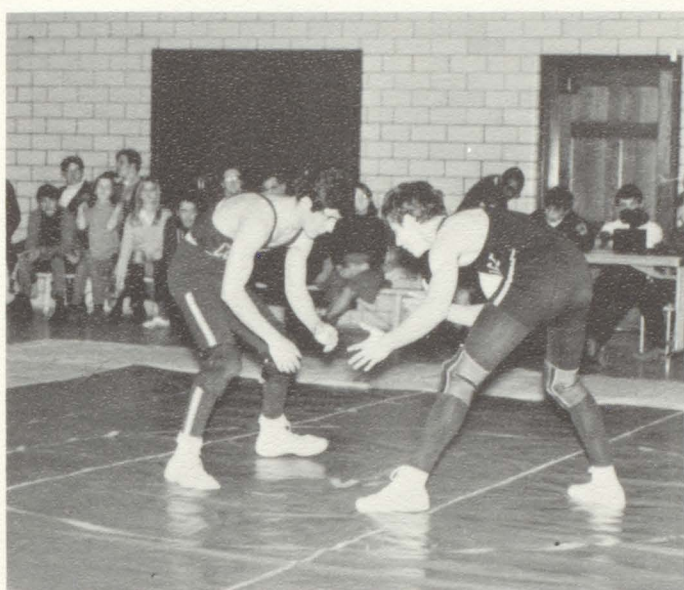

With experienced men returning, next year's team can only improve.

Swimming

With the end of this year's swimming season came the downfall of a great dynasty. The mer-men who had been city champs for six straight years were finally dethroned by the Horace Mann team. All in all, the team's accomplishments for the 68/69 season came out to be a disappointing four wins eight losses record. The season did have its bright moments such as the breaking of the city record for the four hundred yard freestyle relay. Another memorable event was junior Tom Stults' placing ninth at the state meet on February twenty-second.

The tankers were led by tri-captains John Renner, Paul Yocum, and Joe Manley, and were coached by Ed Troy.

Catcher Andy Zdobyak awaits the pitch.

With nine returning lettermen, the Lew Wallace baseball team had a praiseworthy season. Toeing the rubber this year were seniors, Joe Medellin, Dave Cooper, and junior, Cleve Hall. Catching this crew was senior, Andy Zdobyak. Other returning lettermen were seniors, Brian Berkman, Steve Johnson, Doug Morrone, John Sikora, and junior, Paul Hernandez. With a nucleus like this, Coach Larry Martin was able to guide the Hornets to another winning season.

The senior cindermen were Kevin Judge, Larry Juzwicki, Mike Shaver, and Jim Roubos.

And so another routine day of school progresses.

No matter how routine and sometimes dull school life may be, the four years spent in high school prove to be an important time of learning, respecting, thinking, and molding. So important, that the days are represented and recalled each year in a book of memories—fond remembrances of close friends, good times, and worthwhile study.

A yearbook is a combination of the talents, ideas, and cooperation of many people. Hours of hard work have been devoted by many to present a yearbook of fine quality and creative ideas.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude and appreciation to the following people who have made the 1969 Quill and Blade possible: to the staff, for their cooperation and determination; my special thanks to Karin Opacich for the extraordinary amount of time and work which she devoted unselfishly to the book; to Dale Giolas for his assistance and dependability with photography; to Mr. John Giolas for his cooperation and understanding; to Mr. Richard O'Curran, our Irish leprechaun, for his assistance, encouragement, and sense of humor. Thanks also to Collins Furniture Store, the office staff and administration, the students and faculty, and Linda Jones, Vicky Kappas, and Georgene Terzes for their assistance with the copy.
